1. This is a binding agreement between authorized agents of Clark County Chamber of Commerce and the Advertiser.
2. The Advertiser is responsible to submit and approve print-ready ads by the deadlines. If copy is not received by the specified deadline, the Publisher will run the last ad insertion, or the Advertiser will be liable for contracted space not used. In any event, the Advertiser agrees to not hold the Publisher responsible for errors in the run ad. All payments are non-refundable.
3. The terms included in this Agreement constitute the entire agreement between Clark County Chamber of Commerce and the Advertiser, and no other verbal or written statements shall affect it. The authorized signer has read, understands, and agrees to abide by these terms.
4. All charges for advertising orders placed with the Publisher are the financial responsibility of the Advertiser and/or its agency and are payable according to the terms listed above, either from the Advertising Agreement, emails or mailed invoices.
5. In the event an account goes into collection, the Advertiser and/or its agency agree to pay any and all reasonable attorney and/or collection fees to Clark County Chamber of Commerce.
6. The Advertiser and its agents shall hold harmless and indemnify the Publishers against any and all liability, claims and demands related to, or arising from the publication of the Advertiser's advertising, including but not limited to liabilities, loss and all other expense including counsel fees, claims for demands of; misrepresentation; misstatements; infringement or violation of Anti-Trust Laws or Trade Regulations, unfair competition, interference with contractual regulations; injury as falsehood, and interference with advantageous relationship or perspective advantage.
7. In case of Publisher errors, the Advertiser will receive credit for the % of space in the ad where the error occurred, which will be applied towards a future ad insertion.
8. Clark County Chamber of Commerce reserves the right to refuse to publish material or modify the material as deemed appropriate.
