Mission of the Society

The mission of Newtown Square Historical Preservation Society is to search out, acquire, and preserve all buildings, documents, artifacts, and other memorabilia relevant to the history of Newtown Township (Delaware County). The Society shall play an active roll in the township to encourage membership in the Society, to educate townships residents, including school children, of the history of Newtown Township and to sponsor public events, programs and tours of historic buildings in the township. The Society will actively support other township, county and state societies whenever possible.
