Sales Coordinator

Position Description Summary

Department: Sales

Salary: $39,637

Supervisor: National Sales Manager

The following is a summary of the general nature and level of work performed by the staff member in this position. This description is not designed to contain or be interpreted as a comprehensive inventory of all duties and responsibilities. Other duties may be assigned.

This position will be open until filled. Review of applications will begin immediately.

The Sales Coordinator will provide professional administrative sales and services support for sales managers, helping with promotion, booking and contracting for national market segments (paired with Visit Seattle staff) as well as for local market segments. Consistently deliver top-level service and positive communications to both internal and external customers. Provide administrative support for bids, proposals, correspondence, contracts and sales activities with poise, dedication, accuracy and efficiency to help the sales teams meet goals and maximize profits while delivering world-class service.

Essential duties include, but are not limited to the following:

- Achieve or exceed established individual sales goals and team goals, core work criteria, and sales initiatives as defined in plans and strategies. Work in a team environment with co-workers and other sales professionals, increasing overall facility revenue.
- Help the sales managers with administrative tasks related to sales strategies to secure new business, promote the rental of the convention center and sell related services offered at the facility.
- Perform administrative tasks that support the development of sales and marketing strategies and procedures to optimize efficiency and maximize revenue for the planned sales of two buildings.
- Provide administrative sales and services to support three to four sales managers, including organizing, typing, data entry, copying, collating and filing materials. Involves some direct client contact such as activities, events, and tours as well as phone calls.
- Prepare reports, presentation materials, and correspondence and documents for clients. Coordinate appointments for site inspections and other scheduled activities. Maintain client files. Coordinate projects for sales and promotional efforts.
- Support the sales manager's full sales cycle, from "inquiry to contract," by providing administrative support to draft, review and audit proposals, bids, license agreements, addenda and amendments—helping facilitate the sales efforts to secure business. Help determine space usage suitable for clients, understand floor plans and accurately maintain information in event management system.
- Cultivate and maintain positive relations with internal and external customers.

Education and Experience

Bachelor's degree in Sales, Business, Marketing or related subject preferred. Minimum of three (3) years of administrative experience, preferably in hospitality and convention sales or related area. Equivalent combinations of education and experience may be considered.

Strong proficiency in Microsoft® Office (Word, Excel, Outlook, PowerPoint) and other related sales and space management databases. Experience with Ungerboeck event software is preferred.

- Strong background using computer, fax, email, smart devices and general office equipment, including laptop computers.
- Experience with basic database software and data entry.
- Outstanding oral communication, interpersonal skills and written communication skills.
- Ability to maintain respectful working relationships with co-workers and clients.
- Skill in public speaking and presenting information and ideas to individuals and groups.
- Must be able to work with and maintain highly confidential information.
- Ability to work simultaneously with a variety of vested interest groups and to foster cooperation within those groups.
- Ability to anticipate problems and implement immediate corrective action.

- continued -
