Sample Demand Letter-

Victims of dishonored checks are required to make at least one attempt to notify a check writer to demand payment of a dishonored check that is returned because of Insufficient Funds. This must be done by certified mail or regular mail, supported by an affidavit of service. The check writer must then be given ten (10) days to respond. (If, after that time, the matter has not been resolved, the check can be referred to the Check Enforcement Program. See the Program Guidelines for more details on referring a check.)

The sample demand letter below is suitable to send the check writer. The language of the letter conforms to the requirements of the New York Statutes.

Note: Victims of dishonored checks must not make any threats of prosecution (written or oral) to enforce or enhance the collection or honoring of the check.

Be sure to date the letter. (Company letterhead) You can vary this text, but the text of a demand letter should "substantially conform to" this wording. Check writer Date Address You may require the check writer to pay City, State Zip fee's allowable by law. Re: Notice of Dishonored Check Keep a copy of the demand letter and enclose a copy of the demand letter or You are hereby notified that a check, number _ return receipt when you submit the check issued by you on (date of check), drawn upon (name of to the Check Enforcement Program. bank), and payable to (your business), has been dishonored. If it is returned as undeliverable, you should enclose the undelivered letter You have ten days from the date of this notice to tender when you submit the check to the Check payment of the full amount of the check plus a fee of $ ____ Enforcement Program. to the undersigned at: ______ The Check Enforcement Program requires check writers to pay the victim the full You are further notified that in the event the above amount of the check as well as a fee to help amount is timely paid in full, you will not be subject to legal offset the costs that are incurred as a result proceedings, civil or criminal. of the bad check Sincerely, In the event you contact the check (Signed) writer by phone, you should essentially give the same information as shown in this sample letter.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Of course you are free to discuss the matter with the check writer, but remember to avoid threats of prosecution.

If you have questions about the Program or any of the dishonored checks you have referred, call us toll free at 1-888-296-1421. You may also contact the Program on the web at: www.hotchecks.net/allegany. We will do our best to make sure your dishonored check(s) are handled efficiently and promptly.