HONG KONG, April 21, 2015 -- /EPR NETWORK/ -- Focusky, the new online cloud service, offers a variety of tools for professional presentation creation, setting it light-years ahead of other services. Individuals and businesses can now design, convert, and publish entire presentations online for free with the free online presentation maker.

Offering a wide array of helpful tools and information, Focusky free online presentation maker makes it easy for members to accomplish any of the following tasks :

- Create an appealing, interactive homepage.
- Make next presentation stand above the rest.
- Collaborate with co-workers from the cloud.
- Showcase attractive presentations and slideshows.
- Seamlessly share SEO friendly content.
- Much, much more!

A basic Focusky membership is free and comes with 100 GB of cloud storage for one user to create presentations online with access to tools like search engine optimization and customizable templates. A professional membership starts at just $4 a month and includes unlimited cloud storage for up to three users to create and publish presentations both through the desktop app or online, the ability to publish ZIP, EXE, and APP formats, video presentations, and many more features more. See a side-by-side comparison here.

"The Focusky online cloud service is very convenient for businesses and individual users." says Focusky president, Jason Chen. "They don't have to upload the presentation to their own servers. They can just use Focusky and embed the HTML presentation into their own web page by using simple codes. If one needs more professional animation editing features, he or she can download the desktop client for free."

The software is available for both PC and Mac and comes with a variety of useful project building and editing features out of the box. Working with Focusky's user-friendly interface to upload audio, video, and photos into interactive presentations is breeze.

Over 50,000 companies are already using Focusky for their next presentation including Dell, Time Warner Cable, Pepsico and many more. Focusky's service is excellent for marketing, web design, and anyone who wants to create content that stands above the rest.
