A minimum of 21 games is needed to establish a book average in a USBC certified league, except in the case of those leagues that bowl only 2 games each session. In this event, 14 games will be needed to establish a book average.

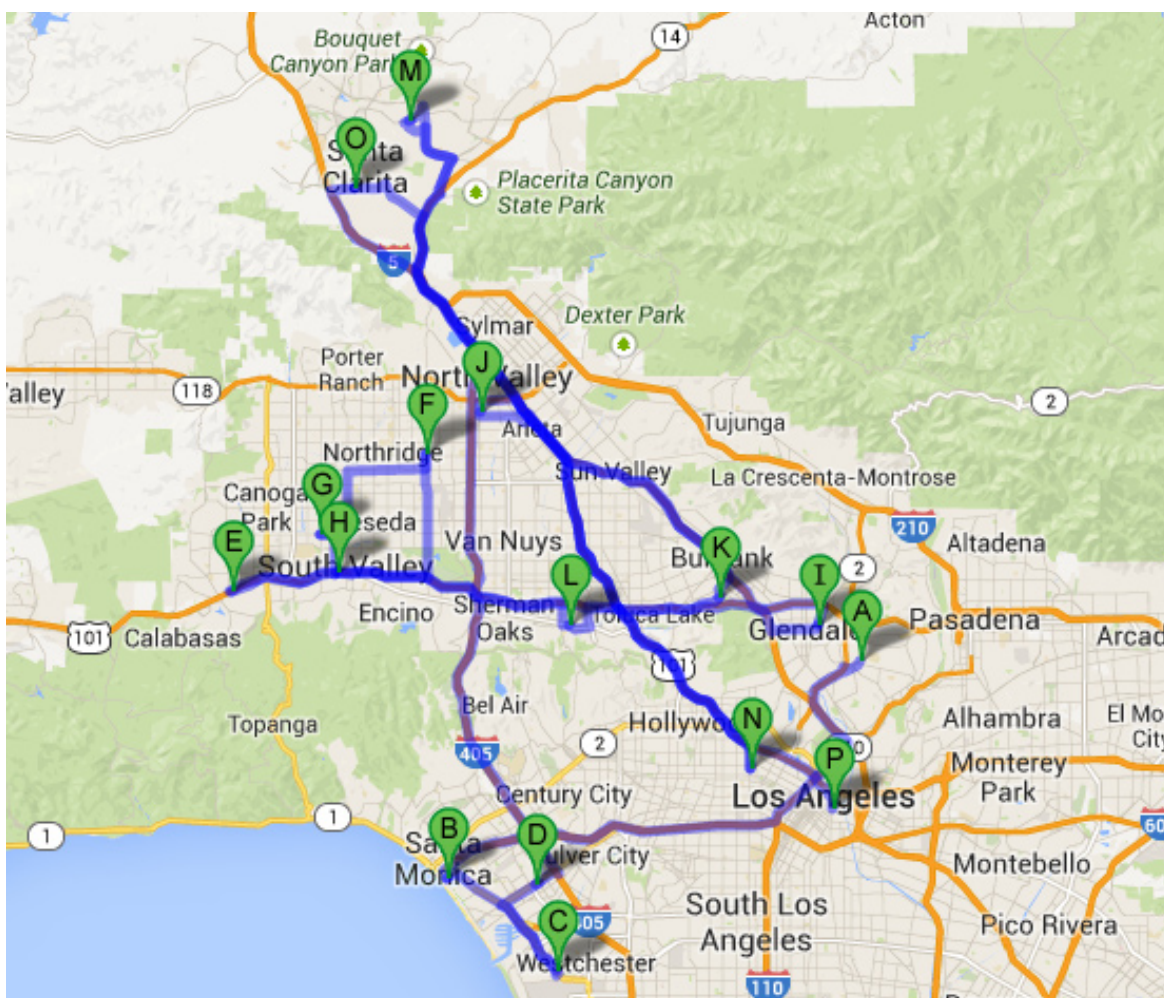

Averages are listed for each USBC certified league bowled. Those averages listed with less than the minimum number of games receive an *. Averages for bowlers who participated in 21 games or more in Summer Leagues, that had no official average in the Winter Season will be taken as of August 15, 2013 and will be maintained in the office of the association.

Please be sure to read all league and tournament rules carefully for the entering average requirements. Some events use current league sheet averages. The bowlers & coaches (for youth) are responsible for reporting the correct average when entering an event. Disqualification can occur for not reporting the correct average.

Average errors in this guide may be caused by various reasons beyond the association's control. It remains the individual's responsibility to know, and state the correct average where requested. Any errors in averages should be reported to the Association Office.

Robin Romeo wins 2014 USBC Senior Queen

USBC Communications • Published: July 3, 2014 | Bowl.com

RENO, Nev. - United States Bowling Congress Hall of Famer Robin Romeo of Newhall, Calif., made her way through the stepladder finals to capture the coveted tiara at the 2014 USBC Senior Queens presented by Storm on Thursday. The 57-year-old right-hander defeated fellow hall of famer and top seed Tish Johnson of Colorado Springs, Colo., 241-188, to take home the $3,500 top prize at the National Bowling Stadium. It was her first victory in more than 30 years of USBC Queens and Senior Queens competition.

Romeo opened Thursday's stepladder finals with a 217-191 victory over USBC Hall of Famer and defending champion Lucy Sandelin of Tampa, Fla. She then bested 2011 Senior Queens champion Paula Vidad of Sun City, Calif., 234-191, to set up the meeting with Johnson, who was the No. 1 seed for the second consecutive year. "I knew I had a pretty good shot and was comfortable with where I was playing," said Romeo, who finished third at the 1980 Queens. "Sometimes, when you have to win a few matches to make it to the title match, you have to treat each match separate. Once I got through the first one, I calmed down and felt pretty good after that."

The final match was tightly-contested until the seventh frame, when Johnson left the 4-6-10 split and was unable to convert it. As she stepped up for her final frame, Johnson still had the chance to put pressure on Romeo, but a 7-10 split gave Romeo the win and Johnson her second runner-up finish in her three Senior Queens appearances. Johnson earned $2,000 for the effort. "I knew Tish was going to give it her all in the ninth and 10th frames," said Romeo, who won the 2012 Bowling's U.S. Senior Women's Open, also at the NBS. "I was prepared to have to strike out to win. It was a very emotional moment. I've been bowling for a long time, and there are certain titles you really work hard for. It's pretty awesome, and it makes me feel good."

Romeo nearly didn't participate in the Senior Queens after having surgery on her left thumb, but she was able to start practicing at the beginning of June. Prior to the Senior Queens, she stopped at the nearby Reno-Sparks Convention Center to compete at the 2014 USBC Women's Championships and teamed with fellow hall of famer Jeanne Naccarato of Tacoma, Wash., to take the lead in Division 1 Doubles. "I had surgery on my left thumb, and it was a six-month recovery," Romeo said. "Even though it's my left hand, I wasn't able to hold the ball because it hadn't healed. I only had a couple of weeks to practice and was planning on going home after Nationals, but I felt good and was bowling well, and everyone back home told me to stay and bowl."

The 2014 Senior Queens featured 56 of the top female USBC members age 50 and older competing for a chance at part of the $21,000 prize fund, which included a $5,000 contribution by presenting sponsor Storm. All competitors bowled 15 qualifying games over three days before the field was cut to the top 16 for match play.
