Zonta International - is an organization of executives and business professions around the world, and recognized by the United Nations as working together to advance the status of women worldwide.

Zonta Club of Flint - has a mission to support the goals of Zonta International and to improve the status of women in Genesee County. This club has been in existence since 1923 and has benefitted the community through their donations of time and funding to several local area charities. The Zonta Club of Flint is a 501(c)(3) and is a worldwide service organization of executives in business and other professionals working to improve the legal, political, economic, and professional status of women.

Genesee Regional Women's Hall of Fame - honors those women in our community who have made a difference and changed the history of Genesee County. The Genesee County Regional Women's Hall of Fame will recognize the accomplishments of Genesee County women, past and present. The Zonta Club of Flint 1 will strive to bring greater visibility to the roles that women have played in Genesee County history and acknowledge that women impact and improve our lives every day.
