"So You Want to Be a Soccer Coach" is a new NSCAA event designed for high school and college students aspiring to a soccer coaching career. Many coaches will tell you that they did not know exactly how to become a coach when beginning their career. This program is the starting point for all those wishing to become a soccer coach.

"So You Want to Be a Soccer Coach" is for those players seeking to coach any type or level of soccer. The educational curriculum will be taught by NSCAA staff and will introduce prospective coaches to topics and how each is applied to various types and levels of coaching, giving coaches a better understanding of where they may wish to begin. The goal is for participants to complete the course knowing where to find great coaching opportunities.

Course Schedule:

9-10:50 a.m.	Education Session 1
11-noon	Attend Demo Session or Lecture
noon-1:15 p.m.	Lunch and Exhibit Hall
1:15-2:10 p.m.	Education Session 2
2:15-3:15 p.m.	Attend Demo Session or Lecture
3:30-5:30 p.m.	Education Session 3

Topics to be Discussed During Education Sessions:

- Coaching Opportunities at ALL levels
- Career planning and direction
- Organization of a training session
- Networking with peers/colleagues
- Transition from player to coach
- How to get involved
- Misconceptions of the coaching career
- Roles and responsibilities of a modern coach
- Why are coaches needed?
- Why do you want to coach?
- Panel Q & A (coaches from all levels will be represented on the panel)

Attendee Benefits:

- Access to Exhibits, Demo Sessions and Convention Lectures
- NSCAA-provided lunch
- Apparel piece
- Networking opportunities
- One-year NSCAA membership

The inaugural installment of "So You Want to Be a Soccer Coach" will be held on Saturday January 14, at the 2012 NSCAA Convention in Kansas City. Participants will have time to listen to lectures, watch field sessions and experience the exhibitor hall. Space is limited to 40 participants, and advanced registration is required.
