

School of Journalism

ELAINE CADAY-EAMES MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION, 2011-2012

The Elaine Caday-Eames Memorial Scholarship was established in 2009 by Steven Eames to honor the life and accomplishments of his wife and Annenberg alumna, Elaine Caday-Eames. The $5,000 award is for an upperclassman studying in the undergraduate broadcast journalism program. Award recipients will be selected by the Annenberg School faculty and must demonstrate academic excellence, professional potential and financial need. Preference will be given to students who have demonstrated an interest in the issues, perspectives and experiences of those of Asian or Pacific Islander descent.

Award and eligibility:

- One $5,000 scholarship will be awarded for the 2011-2012 academic year to a broadcast journalism student demonstrating academic excellence, professional potential and financial need. Preference will be given to students who have demonstrated an interest in the issues, perspectives and experiences of those of Asian or Pacific Islander descent.
- The award recipient must be an undergraduate broadcast journalism student entering his/her junior or senior year and enrolled full-time for the 2011-2012 academic year.

To apply for the Elaine Caday-Eames Memorial Scholarship, fill in the information below:

Last name: _____ First name: _____

Local address: _____

City, State, ZIP: _____

University ID number: _____ Major: _____

E-mail: _____ Telephone number: _____

Please include the following items with your application:

- Essay that discusses why you are qualified for this scholarship, your future career plans and your need for financial assistance.
- Resume that outlines your internships/work histories, interests and activities.
- Two examples of your work – please submit a DVD and include the complete script with lead-ins, tags and verbatims.

Application deadline is Thursday, March 31, 2011, at 5 p.m. Application form and required materials may be e-mailed to Debra Ono at ono@usc.edu or brought to the School of Journalism office, located in ASC 303.