

THE WEDDING TIMELINE

Organized advance planning will ensure you enjoy every minute of your special day. Start planning your wedding 12 months ahead of time if possible and use the following timeline as a guide through the process. Once the planning is complete, relax and get plenty of rest - the festivities are about to begin.

12 MONTHS AHEAD

- Select the date for your wedding (& alternate dates)
- Consult with your fiancé & all parents to determine the financial support available to you & set a budget for the wedding (including all activities related to your wedding)
- Determine, with your fiancé, the type of wedding you will have (formal or informal, large or small)
- Determine, with your fiancé, (& your families if appropriate) the number of guests you wish to invite
- Select & reserve the ceremony site
- Select an officiant for your ceremony
- Select & reserve the reception site
- Determine your need for wedding coordinator services & hire one to help you (with entire planning process; with certain aspects; or with wedding day only)

10-12 MONTHS AHEAD

- Arrange for families to meet (if they have not already done so)
- Begin shopping for gown & accessories (veil, gloves, lingerie, shoes)
- Order gown
- Determine the guest list (compiled by you two & your families)
- Choose your wedding party attendants (bridesmaids, groomsmen, etc.)
- Select & order attendants wedding attire (bridesmaid gowns & accessories, child attendants' attire)
- Research, review & select your photographer
- Research, review & select your videographer
- If you're marrying during a busy time (i.e., the holidays), have a lot of out-of-town guests, or are planning a destination wedding, send save-the-date cards
- Get your engagement photo taken

8-10 MONTHS AHEAD

- Select & reserve the caterer
- Select & reserve the decorator
- Select & reserve the florist
- Select & reserve party rental equipment (tents, tables, chairs, décor)
- Determine wedding cake design; select & reserve a baker or bakery
- Select & reserve musicians for the ceremony
- Select & reserve music/entertainment for the reception
- Select & reserve transportation for the wedding party (limousines, carriages, etc.)
- Plan the details of the reception
- Begin shopping for wedding rings
- Discuss honeymoon plans with fiancé & begin arrangements

6-8 MONTHS AHEAD

- Order invitations, announcements, informal stationery & thank you notes
- Register for wedding gifts at one to three stores
- Reserve accommodations for out-of-town guests
- Reserve transportation for out-of-town guests to travel to/from the ceremony & reception
- Finalize honeymoon plans with fiancé (finalize arrangements, check passports/visas, notify employers)

4-6 MONTHS AHEAD

- Select & order men's formalwear
- Reserve accommodations for wedding night (if different from honeymoon plan)
- Select stylist or salon for bridal party hair, nails & make-up
- Meet with florist to plan details
- Select & purchase wedding guest favors
- Select & hire calligrapher, if needed
- Begin dance lessons with fiancé
- Find & reserve your rehearsal dinner location
- Finalize guest list

2-4 MONTHS AHEAD

- Announce engagement in local newspapers
- Confirm delivery dates for bridal gown & bridesmaids' dresses
- Meet with caterer to discuss menu
- Meet with officiant to discuss ceremony
- Select ceremony music, readings & vows
- Schedule ceremony rehearsal & notify participants
- Buy & wrap gifts for wedding party
- Address wedding invitations
- Buy wedding rings & order engraving

1-2 MONTHS AHEAD

- Schedule final fittings on your gown
- Remind bridesmaids to schedule final fittings
- Call your county clerk's office for marriage license details (when, where, how much) & schedule a date with your fiancé to get your license
- Schedule blood test (only a few states still require this)
- Mail invitations
- Prepare printed program for ceremony
- Start seating plan & placecards for reception
- Plan pre-wedding party or luncheon for bridesmaids
- Confirm ceremony & reception details with wedding coordinator, ceremony officiant & reception site manager
- Assign wedding day tasks to friends (guest book & table attendants, assistance with corsages & boutonnieres & cake cutting)
- Confirm request lists with photographer, musicians/DJ & videographer
- Purchase wedding accessories (guest book & pen, toasting glasses, unity candle, kiddush cup, cake knife & server, & flower girl/ring bearer accessories)
- Pick up wedding rings & check engraving
- Begin arrangements for changing bride's name on documents (if applicable)
- Record gifts received & write thank you notes promptly
- Schedule pre-wedding manicure/pedicure, massage & spa treatments

2-4 WEEKS AHEAD

- Arrange for cleaning & preservation of wedding gown after wedding
- Arrange for bridal bouquet preservation after wedding
- Confirm honeymoon arrangements
- Confirm arrangements for attire & accessories of all wedding party members
- Assist fiancé with writing toasts for rehearsal dinner & wedding reception
- Follow up with guests who didn't respond to the invite & finish seating chart/placecards
- Confirm final guest count to caterer & reception facility
- Notify post office of change of address (if applicable)

1 WEEK AHEAD

- Make final contact with baker, caterer, florist, musicians/DJ, photographer & videographer
- Make final preparations for honeymoon (pack suitcases, prepare camera, purchase traveler's checks)
- Confirm wedding-day assignments with wedding coordinator, family & friends
- Confirm time/location for rehearsal, rehearsal dinner & wedding with wedding party participants
- Confirm pick-up times/locations with transportation providers
- Put fees due on the wedding day in envelopes, for the best man to distribute
- Host bridesmaids' luncheon

DAY OF THE WEDDING

SHARING THE COST

It is no longer expected that wedding costs will be assigned according to tradition. The bride and groom should discuss their plan and budget for the wedding with their families to determine whether to follow a traditional division of financial responsibility for the wedding costs. If circumstances don't allow the families to follow tradition, the proper rationale in deciding who pays for what portion is basic: whoever is most willing and most able to pay for a wedding expense assumes responsibility for that expense.

THE WEDDING BUDGET

Know your overall budget BEFORE you start planning your wedding - it's one of the first issues you and your fiancé should discuss. Set your priorities based on what is most important to both of you and spend accordingly. For example, if the meal is the most important element of your wedding, you'll want to allocate a greater portion of your budget to it.

CAKES PLANNER

Your wedding cake is the edible centerpiece of your wedding reception. When meeting with your cake designer, bring photographs of cakes you love or fabric swatches of your color scheme to help them design the perfect cake for you. Many couples also order a groom's cake. This is often designed to reflect a particular hobby or personality trait of the groom, and can be a true work of edible art. If you're having a large reception, consider ordering additional sheet cakes. And finally, your baker should not only be accustomed to making wedding cakes, but also skilled at transporting and assembling them.

Ask the Right Questions

- Do you specialize in any certain styles or flavors?
- Do you recommend a certain type of cake for an outdoor or seasonal reception?
- Can you custom create a wedding or groom's cake from a photograph or idea?
- Can you match the cake colors to fabric swatches or flowers?
- Can you create individual cakes to be used as favors?
- Can you create specialized cakes for certain dietary needs?
- Do you offer a tasting?
- How much time do you need to prepare the cake at the reception?
- Do you offer instruction on how to cut the cake?
- Will you supply a proper container in which to freeze the top of the cake?
- Will you charge for any supports or bases on the cake?
- May I return the supports and bases for a refund? When?
- Are the cakes priced by the slice or by the cake? Do you have a price list?
- How far in advance must I book your services?
- What is your cancellation policy?
- Is a deposit required? If so, when and how much?

CATERING PLANNER

The success of your wedding will depend largely on the skill of your caterer. A full-service caterer will provide the food, experienced servers, linens, chair covers, china, glassware, silverware and serving dishes. Find a caterer who will guide you in your menu planning, listen to your ideas, and make innovative suggestions. Aided by your caterer's creativity and professionalism, you can host a truly delightful and memorable affair.

Ask the Right Questions

- What packages do you offer? What do they include?
- Have you worked at my reception site before?
- Will you be available to visit the reception site before the wedding? Can we go over a floor plan?
- When is the deadline for the final guest count?
- When will we need to finalize the menu?
- Can you provide any special or ethnic dishes?
- Can you provide entrées for my guests who have special dietary needs?
- Will you provide silverware, china, stemware, salt and pepper shakers, etc? May I see them?
- Do you supply or arrange tables, chairs, linens or placecards? May I see them?
- Who will keep the leftover food and beverage?
- Will the caterer provide servers? How many are appropriate for my wedding? How will they be dressed?
- Do you work with fresh or frozen food?
- Are you licensed? (Meaning: they've met health department standards and have liability insurance. If you are having a bar, be sure this license includes a liquor license.)
- Do you provide beverage service and/or bar service?
- Do you charge an opening fee per bottle?
- Do you provide alcohol or is the bar handled separately? If you provide this service, do you charge a corking fee?
- How will you arrange the food on the buffet table or on plates? Do you have photos of previous work displays?
- Do you have references I can contact from previous weddings? (Get at least two references that had a similar number of guests and a similar menu style.)
- How far in advance must I book your services?
- What is your cancellation policy?
- Is a deposit required? If so, when and how much?

FLOWERS PLANNER

Flowers express the life and love you celebrate on your wedding day. If you are petite, don't overwhelm yourself with a large bouquet. You can also wear delicate flowers in your hair. Your attendants' bouquets should be identical, with slight variance for your maid/matron of honor. The men should wear a boutonniere.

Ask the Right Questions

- May I see samples of your work?
- What packages do you offer? What do they include?
- How do you suggest we make the most of our floral budget?
- Do you deliver the flowers? Is there a delivery charge?
- Do you provide any other kinds of decorating?
- Do you set up at the ceremony and reception locations?
- Will you label each piece for its intended party member?
- Do you rent or provide decorations and props such as columns, arches or trellises?
- Will you come to the ceremony and reception site to plan out the decor?
- Can you provide fresh flowers for the cake? Will you put them on the cake?
- Will the flowers be moved from ceremony to reception if needed?
If so, will you provide staff to move them?
- How far in advance must I book your services?
- What is your cancellation policy?
- Is a deposit required? If so, when and how much?

Floral Preservation

- May I see samples of your work?
- How quickly after the wedding should I send you the bouquet?
- When can I expect the preserved bouquet?
- What creative ways do you offer to display the preserved flowers?

TERMINOLOGY

- Boutonniere ..... Single flower for men worn on lapel
- Corsage ..... Single flower for women worn on wrist or pinned to breast

MUSIC & ENTERTAINMENT PLANNER

Weddings are sacred ceremonies. They are also celebrations. You and your guests will want to have a lively time on the dance floor to express the joy of your wedding day. A good band or versatile DJ will reach out to all ages and musical tastes, with showmanship and energy to keep the party in high gear.

Ask the Right Questions

- What packages do you offer? What do they include?
- May I see your references and a demo CD?
- May I see you perform at an event or bridal show?
- Is a variety of music offered for selection?
- If I provide you with a list of songs, will you play them? Are you able to get sheet music for any pieces I want played?
- Can we control the volume of the music?
- How will you and other musicians be dressed?
- How long do you play and how many breaks do you take?
- How long will you need to prepare or set up?
- Will you be able to act as master of ceremonies?
- When do you begin charging overtime?
- How far in advance must I book your services?
- What is your cancellation policy?
- Is a deposit required? If so, when and how much?

Make song choices before your wedding day. Give a copy of these choices to your musicians and DJs so they can plan accordingly. Include those songs that you do not want to hear that day. Also think about who you want to emcee the event; inform the DJ of these assignments as well.

PHOTOGRAPHY PLANNER

Your photographer's personality is as important as their skill. Meet with them to make sure your ideas mesh and find out exactly what photos they'll be taking. Discuss any restrictions your church or synagogue may impose. Determine what you'll need to do to get reprints and extra albums later on.

Ask the Right Questions

- Are you the photographer who will be taking the pictures? If not, can I meet with that photographer?
- How long have you been a professional wedding photographer? May I see samples of your work?
- What packages do you offer? What do they include?
- Do you allow couples to purchase the negatives?
- Do you include reprints or albums in your pricing?
- What is the reorder price, if I decide to order additional prints later?
- What type of photography do you specialize in? (candid, portraits, photojournalistic, black and white or a combination?)
- Do you shoot digitally?
- Have you photographed at my ceremony and reception site before? Are you familiar with the lighting/layout there?
- How many other weddings do you have that night? Are there any time limits as to how long you can stay?
- When will my proofs be ready? How long can I keep them?
- Can I view my photos online? Do you offer online ordering for my guests?
- What happens if you are sick or have an emergency on my wedding day?

RECEPTION PLANNER

The location, food, drinks, decor and entertainment all play important roles in creating the perfect ambiance and will have to be arranged carefully. Choosing a location will determine many things about your wedding day, such as what the style and formality of the attire will be, and whether or not you will hire a separate food and beverage caterer.

Ask the Right Questions

- May I tour your site?
- May I see photographs or other receptions held here?
- What areas and rooms will we have access to? Are there any restrictions?
- Are there convenient and adequate restrooms? Are they handicap accessible?
- Are there adequate electrical outlets for the entertainer?
- Do you provide any equipment such as a sound system, AV or PA system?
- Are there any restrictions on decor, photography, videography, smoking or bar service?
- Will you provide valet, coat check, restroom, bar and door attendants?
- Is there ample parking for guests?
- Is there an onsite caterer? Are we required to use your caterer? Are offsite caterers allowed?
- Do you have any other events scheduled the day of my wedding? How many events do you allow to be scheduled per day?
- Is there a certain time when we must leave?
- How far in advance must I book your services?
- What is your cancellation policy?
- Is a deposit required? If so, when and how much?

VIDEOGRAPHY PLANNER

Nothing quite captures the real essence of your wedding day – the sights, sounds and energy – better than a well-done, high quality video. You'll be able to revisit this important day in your life long after it's over, and share it with children, grandchildren or other special people in the future. The most important element when searching for a videographer is a comprehensive sample of their wedding work. Ask to see a recent, completed video from a wedding – not just a highlights tape – so that you know exactly what you would receive from them, should you hire them. Consider the quality of the picture, the sound and the editing. A bad, poor quality video is a waste of money, but a good, high quality video is priceless.

Ask the Right Questions

- Can I see samples of your work?
- How long have you been a professional wedding videographer? How many weddings have you done?
- What packages do you offer? What do they include?
- Are you able to accommodate any restrictions with lights and tripods at the ceremony location?
- Can I keep the raw, unedited footage as well as the finished product? Is there an added fee for this?
- Do you offer DVDs?
- What is the charge per extra copy made?
- Will you be able to film while a photographer is present?
- Will you be the one who will be shooting my wedding? If not, can I speak with that person?
- What types of cameras and microphones will you use? How new is the equipment? Where will they be placed?
- Do you attend the wedding rehearsal?
- How long will it take to receive our completed video after the wedding?
- Will a backup camera be on hand for the event?
- How far in advance must I book your services?
- What is your cancellation policy?
- Is a deposit required? If so, when and how much?

WEDDING ATTIRE FOR THE BRIDE

Your wedding day attire will be the most special outfit you'll ever own, be it an elaborate gown, a simple sophisticated dress or an elegant suit. Before picking out a gown, consider all your options. Will you buy one of the fabulous creations of a well-known designer from a full service bridal salon, wear a family heirloom that could use some redesign, or have your gown custom designed to reflect your personality?

Ask the Right Questions

- Which designers do you carry?
- Do you have the dress that I want on hand or must I order it?
- Do you offer accessories and shoes as well?
- Can you dye the shoes?
- Do you offer pressing, alterations or bridal slips?
- Can you guarantee a delivery date for my dress?
- When can you offer alterations or fittings for my bridal party?
- Do my bridal attendants have to be here or can they give their measurements by phone?
- Can you make last-minute alterations?
- How far in advance must I order my gown?
- What is your cancellation policy?
- Is a deposit required? If so, when and how much?

WEDDING ATTIRE FOR THE GROOM

The groom, his attendants and the fathers may not choose to dress identically, but their attire should complement the bride's, and reflect the wedding's formality. Flatter the groom's build. Add cohesion with ties, cummerbunds or suspenders in the same color as the bridesmaids' dresses. If all the men are dressing identically, have the groom wear a special boutonniere or distinguishing neckwear.

Ask the Right Questions

- What formalwear is best with the time and style of my wedding?
- What packages do you offer? What do they include?
- Do you provide alterations as part of the rental fee?
- Are shoes, studs, cummerbund and cufflinks included?
- When should fitting appointments be made?
- Can tuxedos be tried on when they are picked up?
- When can the formal wear be returned?
- How can out-of-town guests communicate measurements?
- How far in advance must I book your services?
- What is your cancellation policy?
- Is a deposit required? If so, when and how much?
