

Applicant,

The employment packet you are picking up is for the position of Marshall County Communications 911 Telecommunicator. The MCC911 application and resume, including references, MUST BE returned to the Marshall County Communication 911 Center May 15th, 2015 by 4:00 P.M. by either hand delivered or by the United Post Office. If mailed they must be post marked by May 15th, 2015 at 4:00 P.M. The applications, resumes and other documents that are submitted must be received in a 9 ½ by 11 inch or larger envelope.

Hand delivered applications:

MARSHALL COUNTY COMMUNICATIONS 911
TELECOMMUNICATOR POSITION
601 SIXTH STREET
MOUNDSVILLE, WV 26041

Mailed applications:

MARSHALL COUNTY COMMUNICATIONS 911
TELECOMMUNICATOR POSITION
P.O. BOX DRAWER B
MOUNDSVILLE, WV 26041

No address or name is to be marked on the envelope. If any applications are returned other than what is noted above [i.e.: folded, damaged, or name/and or address listed] these applications will not be considered for review.

On your application and resume where you are listing personal information, your social security number, and driver's license number [place this number at the front page top right-hand side of the application] is needed for criminal justice background checks per West Virginia Code for 911 Telecommunicator. If you do not want a criminal justice background check a letter explaining why must accompany this application. A set of fingerprint cards will be required when scheduled for the pre-hiring testing. Location of fingerprinting will be determined by the 911 Director.

An attachment has been enclosed that must be completed and returned with any application and resume. Failure to complete said documents will remove application/resume from consideration.

Additional documents [copies can be submitted] required for consideration:

Birth Certificate [hospital certificate unacceptable]

High School Diploma/GED

Military Form DD214 [if served]

Failure to submit the first two forms will remove your application/resume from consideration.

A listing of all employers by chronological order is required. If there is a break between employers then those times need to be listed and explained.

The Marshall County Communications 911 Center will be hiring two [2] Telecommunicator positions. The applications received will be maintained for six [6] months from May 15, 2015, the closing date. The listing will be terminated prior to the six [6] months based upon information from the Director of 911 and approval of the Marshall County Commission. If there are any additional hiring's during the six [6] months these will be reviewed for possible selection.

The salary for the current position is $22,000.00 in the 2014/2015 budget. The position is a full time, minimum 40 hour work schedule with a rotating schedule. There is also the possibility of overtime and emergency call out at any time. The applicant will be expected to cover any overtime/call out situations when notified. The applicant will have the understanding that this Telecommunicator position is the PRIMARY JOB of any other jobs the applicant has or other commitments they have undertaken.

At this time the position does have a full county benefit package. Medical, dental, eye, and prescription plans. Extra packages are available to the employee at the employee's personal expense. Vacation package is included and the County Commission assigns the holiday package based on the Federal, State and local events.

The Telecommunicator position carries a ONE YEAR PROBATION status that includes adherence to policy/procedures, mandatory training and in house training with supervision. The Telecommunicator must attend all mandatory training classes and pass said training to maintain employment.

DUTIES: The following are some, but not limited to the duties of the position of Telecommunicator:

[1] Must be able to handle multi-phone calls, both those of emergency and non-emergency nature.

[2] Must be able to handle multi-radio frequency/channels at one time, both those of emergency and non-emergency nature.

[3] Must be able to file reports, events, and other paperwork in both alphabetical and numerical systems.

[4] Should have a basic understanding of total computer design and its operation.

[5] Needs a strong understanding of the English spelling and language and be able to adapt to the agencies technical and abbreviated language.

[6] Must be able to handle the general public and multi-agencies on a daily basis in a professional and courteous manner, no matter what the general public or associated agency may do, say, or personally feel about the Telecommunicator.

[7] Must be able to read, follow, and understand the guidelines for duties set up by the Marshall County Communications 911 Center.

Your application will be kept on file under the following:

[1] Six [6] months from May 15, 2015 of closing of applications.

[2] The current list of qualified applicants is exhausted

[3] The Marshall County Commission terminates the listing due to information received from the Marshall County Communications 911 Director.

Thank you for applying for the position of Telecommunicator with the Marshall County Communications 911 Center.
