

In-Depth Analysis: APAC IP PBX Market and Key Vendor Offerings

Description: The implementation of IP telephony is becoming the mainstream enterprise network activity in the APAC region. Not only are larger enterprises and organizations migrating to IP, in more advanced markets such as Japan and Australia, SMBs are becoming the major customer group implementing IP PBX to gain business benefits and cost-savings from simplified communication networks. As a direct result, a total of 2.1091 million lines of IP PBX were shipped to the APAC market, generating a total of US$1,100.0 million in equipment revenue in 2005. As the market is still in a growing stage, APAC IP PBX shipments are expected to reach 5.4039 million by 2010.

To further grow the market, IP PBX vendors, especially maj
