

Opportunities for UK Businesses in China's Regional Cities

TAKE THE CHINA CHALLENGE

SPONSORS

The focus for many British companies in China continues to be in a small number of large and familiar cities such as Beijing, Guangzhou, Shanghai and Shenzhen. However, business conditions in these cities are evolving quickly. In particular, numerous British companies are experiencing mature and increasingly saturated markets in these locations, with only niche opportunities for development, and growing competitive pressures from other foreign firms and increasingly sophisticated Chinese companies. The report -Opportunities for UK Businesses in China's Regional Cities- presents findings of research conducted in 2011 by CBBC and the Centre of International Business at the University of Leeds for and on behalf of UKTI.

This report explains where and how best, UK businesses should take advantage of the numerous opportunities presented by the ongoing growth of China's Regional Cities.

Key findings - Highlights

- Since 2007 exports to China from the East Midlands have risen from £267m to £424m. For the first two quarters of 2011, exports increased over 24% on the equivalent period last year.
- Exports of machinery and transport equipment are the biggest success for the region, growing by an amazing 58% since 2007.
- The East Midlands has identified two priority locations to develop business with China - Sichuan Province / Chongqing Municipality (which is twinned with Leicester); and Zhejiang Province / Ningbo.
- These locations have been chosen because of pre-existing strong political and civic links however, opportunities are being developed throughout China as they arise.
- A sector based focus has been adopted particularly in transport and environmental technologies. In addition, the sector strengths identified in the Regional Economic Strategy are also promoted. These include construction, healthcare and food and drink.

REGIONAL CITIES ROADSHOW

The report is to be accompanied by a series of seminars around China and the UK to present to senior representatives from UK Companies, the compelling findings and guide companies on how to engage with business opportunities in China's emerging regional cities.

ONE -TO- ONE SESSIONS Following presentations and networking sessions, you can book a 1-2-1 meeting with an industry or market specialist, to discuss the potential opportunities for your company in China.
