

SCOPE OF PRACTICE GUIDELINES

DIRECTORATE OF MEDICAL EDUCATION

UPDATED 7 MARCH 2014

WESTOVER HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

1. Rotating Medical Science and Allied Health students will be expected to possess the following clinical skills:

- a. Bathing patients.
- b. Vital signs: T.P.R. and B.P.
- c. Bed-making, occupied and unoccupied.
- d. Intake and output measurement.
- e. Hot and cold applications.
- f. Ambulating patients.
- g. Transfer of patients via wheelchairs.
- h. Delivery of properly packaged specimens to the laboratory.
- i. Terminal cleaning of patient unit.
- j. Feeding patients and passing trays.
- k. Distributing nourishments, special diets.
- l. Back care and back massage for non-ambulatory patients.
- m. Draping and positioning patients for examination; will not chaperone.

1. Under direct supervision from the staff and/or instructor they may observe any procedure that has the permission of the doctor and patient

2. At a minimum, orientation will include HIPPA and infection control training before patient care is initiated. The students will be prepared with Basic Life Support.

Student

Date