Sister Called to Rest.

Faithe Benson Merritt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Benson, wife of J.T. Merritt, died on the 14th Feb. 1908, aged 39.

She had been ill for some few years past, but able to see after her domestic affairs, until she took measles when she was compelled to take her bed. Her condition became gradually worse for two weeks when the all-wise God saw fit to call her out of her sufferings. She is survived by a husband, eight children, two grandchildren, an aged father and mother, six sisters and three brothers.

Written by her youngest sister, Stella.

A.J. Barrett.

After a lingering illness of more than two years duration, Mr. A.J. Barrett a prominent and highly esteemed citizen of Cumming quietly passed to rest on Sunday June 28th. He was born in Dawson county in 1853 and has spent the greater part of his life in this and adjacent counties, where he has a host of friends to mourn his death.

He was a life-long member of the Methodist church, and charitable in his views toward his fellowman, then more than all, he was sincere in his service to his Lord whom he loved and feared. He was of a very social and genial nature and made friends readily wherever he was known.

Ill health caused his retirement from active life about 4 years past, but during this time he kept interested in the lives of his fellow creatures and was never known to murmur or complain at his infirmities.

After the impressive funeral services at the Cumming Methodist church, conducted by Rev. W.L. Jolley, his pastor, assisted by Rev. G.W. Light, a friend, the remains were laid to rest in the nearby cemetery.

He is survived by his wife who was formerly Miss Emma Barrett, a well known and much loved woman of Acworth, Ga., four sons, Messers. A.O., F.P., J.L. and A.J. Jr., all

Joe Banister Drowned.

Joe Banister, aged 22, was drowned in a lake at Demorest, Ga., Thursday, May 24th. The body was found some few hours later by the brave efforts of the divers who had been summoned from neighboring towns. Joe, together with three other boys from Piedmont College had gone to the lake to go in swimming. Only two of the boys were in the water at the time. Joe and his college mate undertook to swim across the lake and it seems that he suddenly took the cramps and was unable to reach the other side. His companion, Heinkle Smith, made a courageous effort to save him but all was in vain.

Joe was a Sophomore at Piedmont College and had won many friends during his stay there. He was to return to his home in Cumming in a few days, and was to teach in the Cumming school next year.

Cumming people feel that they have lost one of their most promising young men.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. J.L. Wyatt and Rev. G.W. Forrist Friday afternoon at the Cumming Baptist church.

He is survived by his father and mother, two sisters and brothers to whom we extend our deepest sympathy.

In Memory of My Father Thomas Jackson Thompson.

On a beautiful autumn day in the year of 1862, October 16th to be exact, the stork flew over the home of Mr. and Mrs. B.O. Thompson. He left a little white bundle, a baby boy. The proud parents gave him the name of Thomas Jackson; to shorten his name they called him Tommy.

Tommy grew up in Forsyth County, Georgia, in Bethel Community. He acquired his education in an old log school house nestled in the woods.

Tommy was the youngest of eight children. When he was only eleven years old, he saw his mother, Matilda Swilling Thompson, laid to rest. His sisters, Margaret, Harriet and Mary, cared for him until his father married Lucinda Jones, January 17, 1875. Things went fine for she was a devoted mother. Tommy was married October 4, 1883, but I am omitting his married life for another story.

His heart was saddened again when his mother, Lucinda, died July 10, 1900. The very next year, September 10, 1901, his father passed away. This same year I was introduced to Tommy as my father.

Father was very lonely when his brothers and sisters were laid to rest in Georgia clay. For eighty-eight years, my father roamed and worked on the red hills of Forsyth County.

Early on the morning of November 19, 1950, father fell asleep in death. By his request, we buried him at Bethel Church yard beside his father and mothers. (Lengthy religious writing). Mrs. Mina Dollar, Buford, Georgia.

Accident Takes Life of Former Resident Heard G. McCormick.

(Note: This article is reprinted from the Standard, Kanab, Utah, dated Friday, August 22, 1952. We are sorry that it has been delayed)

Heard G. McCormick, longtime resident of Fredonia and vicinity, died last Friday morning while enroute to Kanab hospital from the scene of a truck-bus collision approximately three and a half miles north of Jacob Lake.

Eyewitness reports state that McCormick, an employee of the Arizona State highway department, was proceeding north on the road in a state owned truck when his vehicle was struck from the rear by a Utah Parks bus driven by Fred S. Mathley Ogden. The impact threw the Arizona truck off the road and overturned it, tossing out the injured man. The bus continued down the highway for more than 500 feet and came to a stop.

A nurse from the bus administered immediate first aid and was joined in a few minutes by Effie Dean Rich and Afton Bowman, trained nurses who were called from Jacob Lake. Dr. Phillip G. Fulstow arrived from Kanab as soon as possible, an ambulance was improvised from a pick up truck driven by John Rich, and the injured man, accompanied by Dr. Fulstow and Mrs. Rich, was rushed toward the hospital. However, he succumbed from severe head injuries before the state line was reached.

Heard McCormick was born on October 16, 1894, in Georgia. He first came to this area in 1921 and had worked on a number of historic construction jobs in and around the region, notably Grand Canyon lodge and the Colorado bridge at mouth of Bright Angel canyon. He had a host of friends and acquaintances throughout northern Arizona and southern Utah. In Fredonia he made his home at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Altus Jenson.

Late Friday evening more than 70 of McCormick's friends gathered at the Jenen (sic) home for commemorative services prior to shipment of the body to Georgia for burial. Bishop Allen Judd opened with a short prayer. A quartette, Mesdames Ray Judd, Myron Brown, John Brooksby and Morris Judd, sang "Abide With Me", favorite hymn of the deceased. Thomas Jenson presented a memory of the McCormick he had known, describing him as one who was "a foster father to all the children of the community and a member of the family of all his scores of friends." Leroy Judd sang "tis no Secret," and the services closed with the Masonic prayer read by Eli Shelton. The singers were accompanied at the piano by Miss Winona Peterson, Kanab.

Pallbearers were Bill Byron, Barney Burch, Darrell Lathim, Robert Wright, Ray MacBride and Slim Lathim.

The deceased is survived by two brothers, Buel McCormick of Jacksonville, Florida, and Carl McCormick of Cumming, Georgia, in which community he will be buried.

Mrs. Olin N. Merritt, 60, wife of the postmaster at Ringgold, was fatally injured and two other women were hurt Wednesday night March 25, when the auto in which the three were riding struck a mule on State Highway 53, two miles east of Calhoun, state troopers said on Thursday.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Merritt is survived by two sons, Olin N. Merritt Jr., an employee of the Labor Department in Washington, D.C.; Glendon E. (Joe) Merritt of Chattanooga; one daughter, Mrs. Walter Henderson of Newport News, Va.

Issue of 9 April 1953, Forsyth County News, page 1, col. 1:

Mrs. Olen Merritt Dies in Unusual Traffic Accident.

A tragic death that shocked this whole community and caused widespread grief was that of Mrs. Olen (Nina Tollison) Merritt, 60, who was fatally injured about 7:45 last Wednesday night when a stray mule ran out of the darkness, jumping the roadside gutter into the automobile in which Mrs. Merritt was riding with Mrs. C.C. Black of Peavine community, and Miss Vicki Rickett, Catoosa County Home Demonstration Agent, owner of the car, who was driving. Mrs. Merritt was the wife of Postmaster Olen N. Merritt, and was herself assistant postmaster, and was a prominent and beloved church woman and civic leader.

The accident occurred on State Highway 53, just off 41, and six miles beyond Calhoun, on the short route to Gainesville via Fairmount. The women were returning from an all-day district meeting of home demonstration club leaders at the University of Georgia in Athens. It is said that it was evident by tracks approaching the scene of the collision and wreck that the mule was running as it came out and collided with the moving car, smashing in the right side, landing on top, and was killed. Mrs. Merritt was riding in the right side of the front seat, and Mrs. Black was in the back seat. Out of control, the car ran some distance further and crashed into a roadside bank. The mule was said to have belonged to a Resaca resident, several miles away.

The car was crashed into and about Mrs. Merritt's head. A Calhoun ambulance carried her to Johnson Hall Hospital in Calhoun, but she was dead upon arrival. The body later that night was brought to the Wallis and Bomar Funeral home here.

Mrs. Black suffered a broken ankle and severe cuts and bruises, while Miss Rickett suffered from shock, but received only slight cuts and bruises. Her late model car was badly damaged.

Mrs. Merritt was a member of the Baptist Church, the Order of the Eastern Star, the American Legion Auxiliary, the Ringgold Civinette Club, the Garden Club, the Home Demonstration Club, the T.E.L. Sunday School class, and was an active worker in these and various religious and civic groups.

The Merritts are both natives of Forsyth County, Georgia, coming to Ringgold about 30 years ago. For a number of years Mrs. Merritt was assistant cashier of the Bank of Ringgold. She will be sadly missed in the community.
