

Name _____

English 4 Foundations
Unit 7, Section D

Poetry

Directions: As you move through each poem, record your thoughts about the text in the graphic organizer. Type or write in the appropriate spaces provided.

- The title and author of each poem appear in the first column of the graphic organizer.
- In the middle column, record words that imply messages about death in each poem.
- In the last column, make an inference regarding the theme about death conveyed in each poem.

Title/Author	Key Words That Imply Messages About Death	Inference About Poem’s Theme (Death-related)
“Annabel Lee” by Edgar Allan Poe
“Because I Could Not Stop for Death” by Emily Dickinson
“Full of Life Now” by Walt Whitman

“Do Not Stand at My Grave and Weep”
by Mary Frye

--

--

“A Stone I Died”
by J.Rumi

--

--