Privacy Policy

The TCA collects your personal information for administrative purposes related to your participation in this event. Please note that by submitting personal information to the TCA, you consent to the TCA collecting, using and disclosing this information for the purposes of contacting you in regards to announcements, services, and programs offered by the TCA. The TCA may also take photographs during the event in which your photographic image may appear. These photographs may appear in TCA publications for promotional purposes. If you do not wish to consent to the use of your photographic image by the TCA for this purpose please identify yourself to the TCA staff at the event registration table on the day of the event.

Your credit card information is collected to process the purchase of your tickets. The TCA will retain a record of the transaction for processing and verification purposes in accordance with our Retention Policy.

Subject to legal and contractual requirements, you may refuse or withdraw your consent at any time by contacting the TCA Privacy Officer at privacyofficer@tcaconnect.com or by fax at (416) 499-8752. Please note that if you decide to withdraw consent, the TCA will be unable to continue to provide you with information regarding our services and programs which may be of value to you. The TCA will not sell or provide your personal information to external organizations.

For more information regarding our information management practices, please refer to our privacy statement located at www.tcaconnect.com or available at our Toronto and Mississauga offices.

Cancellation Policy

Registration fees are fully refundable less a $25 administrative fee, if written notice is received by the TCA office by November 29, 2011, at which time, no further cancellations will be accepted. Those failing to notify the TCA office in writing of their cancellation, or those who are "no shows" at the Christmas Luncheon, will not receive a refund. Substitutions will be permitted.
