JOIN US at any of our upcoming worship services. We gather every Sunday at 11:00 AM in the Sanctuary for our large and festive weekly service with Rev. Kim K. Crawford Harvie and our choir. We also hope you'll join us as at the next Wednesday Gathering on Wednesday, April 5th, 2006, when ASC member Lindsay Piper presents "Let the Sun Shine Out."

For more information about the many activities in our seven-days-a-week church, visit www.ASCBoston.org. There you can learn about our Unitarian Universalist faith, the many programs of the church, and how to become a member.

DEEDEE AGEE, daughter of the late writer James Agee, is writing a memoir about growing up in her bohemian family in Greenwich Village in the 1950s and 60s. She is also an artist who is discovering a number of wonderful places to draw in Boston. As a member of the Writer's Room of Boston, she participated in a reading at the Book Store in Porter Square. She and her husband Paul Sprecher, Arlington Street Church's ministerial intern, live near Davis Square in Somerville with their elderly dog and cat. They have two sons.

WEDNESDAY GATHERING is sponsored by the Arlington Street Church Worship Committee. The Wednesday Gathering organizers include Ginny Merritt, Joe Della Penna, Miguel Felipe, and Shea Mullaney. They are grateful for the help and support of Paul Sprecher, ASC's ministerial intern.

CONTACT US at Gathering@ASCBoston.org if you would like to get involved with the Wednesday Gatherings. Also, you can e-mail us to offer suggestions, provide feedback, or submit artwork for the Order of Service.
