

FTO Flexible Training Opportunities

Flexible Training Opportunities give Scottish bakery businesses with up to 150 employees the opportunity to apply for up to £5,000 towards employee training costs.

Enhancing employees' skills will bring real benefits to your business including improved productivity and a stronger more confident workforce.

Types and levels of training that are eligible for support:

- Qualifications including individual units
- Master classes
- Learning based on National Occupational Standards
- Industry recognised qualifications
- Supervisory and management training
- Train the Trainer
- Workshops
- Taster sessions

Funding is available for up to 10 employees per business and the money is not a loan so there's no need to pay it back.

Scottish Bakers through Flexible Learning Opportunities will refund up to 50% of each episode of employee training up to a maximum of £500 for each employee.

To apply, visit www.skillsdevelopmentscotland.co.uk and download the application form.

ILA Scotland- Individual Learning Accounts

Scottish Bakers can accept Individual Learning Account funding for their Management Development and Mary Portas Training courses.

ILA Scotland is a Scottish Government scheme that helps you pay for learning that you can do at a time, place, pace and in a way to suit you.

It's for people who have an income of £22,000 a year or less, or who are on benefits. ILA Scotland could get you up to £200 towards the cost of learning with a learner account.

Scottish Bakers can accept ILA Scotland funding when booking you onto an approved course.

If you want to apply for a learner account from ILA Scotland or need further information, please visit the website or call ILA Scotland helpline on 0808 100 1090.
