

Committed to “Ending the Knowledge Gap”, the Learning Disabilities Association of New York State (LDANYS) proudly invites you to experience the professional development opportunity to reduce the incidence of FASD in New York State. This educational initiative is made possible by a grant from the NY State Developmental Disabilities Planning Council with additional funding support from the New York State Health Foundation, provided in cooperation with the North Country Prenatal/Perinatal Council, Inc. and is open to ALL early intervention, childcare, educational, medical, juvenile justice, and behavioral health service professionals

COME OUT TO A FASCINATING PROGRAM ON A GROWING ISSUE

FETAL ALCOHOL SPECTRUM DISORDERS

Definition and discussion of Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders; Causes and contributing factors to the effects of alcohol; Diagnosis; Barriers to diagnosis; FASD diagnostic criteria; common signs of FASD; prevention of FASD; impact of FASD; strategies for working with individuals with FASD

PRESENTED BY: The Learning Disabilities Association of New York State© (LDANYS), Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder Professional Development Training Opportunity for NYC, LI & upstate NY- PRESENTER: Diane Woodward, MSW, Professional Trainer, Learning Disabilities Association of NY State, Inc., Coordinator of Transition Services, Wildwood Programs.

Continuing Education credits may be available through your credentialing association and/or the New York State Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services (OASAS) for eligible participants. OASAS issues the Credentialed Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Counselor (CASAC), Credentialed Prevention Professional (CPP) and Credentialed Prevention Specialist (CPS). Certificates will be available upon completion of each training session.

DATE & TIMES-: Thursday, October 11, 2012. Please √ which session you'll be attending: SESSION I, 9:30 AM-12:30 PM SESSION II, 1:30 PM-4:30 PM

PLACE & PARKING: Cornell Cooperative Extension of Jefferson County, 203 North Hamilton Street, Watertown, NY 13601
(See Directions on page 2 of this flier)

REGISTRATION: there is no registration fee for this program; pre-registration is required. To register, complete coupon below & email sperryman@ldanys.org or fax to 518-608-8993. Phone inquiries should be directed to Sherelle Perryman, LDANYS Program Coordinator at 518-608-8992.

This program is made possible by a grant from the NY State Developmental Disabilities Planning Council with additional funding support from the New York State Health Foundation, and provided in cooperation with North Country Prenatal/Perinatal Council, Inc.

NAME _____ DAY TIME # _____

(PLEASE PRINT)

AGENCY NAME _____ AGENCY ADDRESS _____

OTHER MAILING ADDRESS (IF PREFERRED)

EMAIL _____

SESSION I: 9:30 AM – 12:30 PM OR SESSION II: 1:30PM – 4:30 PM

BH10-05 FETAL ALCOHOL SPECTRUM DISORDERS 10/11/12

Directions to Cornell Cooperative Extension of Jefferson County

From I-81, take exit 45 (from south turn right; from north turn left).

Follow Arsenal Street/Route 3 through downtown (will pass along public square). Arsenal Street will become State Street on the other side of downtown/public square.

Turn left onto North Hamilton. Cornell Cooperative Extension is on the left.