

Rev. Cecil Donahue

He was born in Statesville, NC February 21, 1955. He was the second of five children having an older brother, and a younger brother and two younger sisters. He grew up in Charlotte graduating from North Mecklenburg High School in 1973 going to college at Pfeiffer studying Math and Christian Education. For enjoyment Cecil sang in the Concert Touring Choir at Pfeiffer, traveling with the Choir up and down the east coast, once on a cross country tour, plus two trip to Europe. After graduating in 1977, Cecil worked as a dorm director and math teacher at Louisburg Junior College in Louisburg, NC. Two years later he married Jan Brittain and went to Candler School of Theology a school of Emory University in Atlanta beginning classes August of 1979. Graduating in 1982, he entered a Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) program at Emory University Hospital earning a basic and 3 advanced units while serving as a chaplain.

Cecil's first appointment was in a three point charge in Rosman, NC. The primary church was Rosman but served Selica and English Chapel, the only UM church situated in the Federal National Forest. During these years Wade and Riley were born and Jan answered a call to ordained ministry. So, in 1987 we moved back to Atlanta for Jan to apply all her previous seminary credits to the Masters of Divinity degree. While Jan completed her degree, Cecil worked full time as an Associate Minister at Ousley UMC in Lithonia, GA. The next chapter of their lives carried Jan, Cecil, Wade and Riley to England to serve in the British Methodist Church. While Jan served full time at 3 of the churches on the Kingswood Circuit, Cecil served two churches and took care of the boys. The time spent in the British church and with the wonderful British people is a highlight of his ministry. From the shores of England, Cecil returned to the WNCC in 1991 to take a 1/2 time appointment at Mars Hill UMC while being the primary care giver for the boys. In 1993 he went full time piecing together the church with a new ministry as the United Methodist campus minister at UNC Asheville. From the Asheville/Weaverville area Cecil and his family moved to the Statesville District with Jan serving at New Salem UMC and Cecil serving Rocky Mount UMC. During these five years Wade and Riley excelled at North Iredell High School and Cecil had a fruitful ministry in Mooresville. Then in 2003 Jan was moved to Christ UMC in Greensboro which was a great opportunity for a woman to serve a major church. Cecil was appointed to Pleasant Union UMC. It was a good match for Cecil and his talents. While at Pleasant Union Jan, Cecil and Riley lost Wade in a car accident. It was a horrible time for them, but Pleasant Union and Christ UMC reached out to the family and helped shepherd them through. While at Pleasant Union the church grew from 260 to 308. The church's growth reflected an increase in children and youth areas. During these years Cecil help lead the church to become more committed and active in local and global missions. Mission trips were made to the gulf coast, eastern NC, Clyde NC, the Bahamas, Bolivia, Armenia, South Dakota, and Mexico as well as serving in areas of the Greensboro District.

Cecil is looking forward to serving in the Kannapolis/Concord area and seeing what exciting things God will do in the coming years.

Greetings to my new friends and co-workers in God's vineyard. Obviously, I am the new leader in the Kannapolis / Concord vineyard. So, it is with great excitement and a bit of fear that join your team in building God's Kingdom in this part of the world.

As we start this journey together, I want you to know that I know you have a strong history of missions and outreach. When I learned this it made my heart leap that I was being assigned by the Bishop to Mount Olivet. Mission efforts close at home as well as far around the world give a great lens into which to look at the overall health and vitality of a church. Matthew 25:31-46, "The Sheep and the Goats" is one of my favorites because it clearly tells what a Christ follower should be doing in his/her service of God. In addition to missions, I believe that focusing on worship; the preaching, the prayer, and the music is critical to the church's life blood and health. Finally, I believe that hospitality, to each other and to those unchurched in the community is God's call on every church.

I want you to be aware of my sermon topics and scriptures for the month of July. I ask that you pray for me, for those that will be sitting near you on Sunday mornings and for the unchurched in your area and invite them to join us as we begin a new chapter in the life of Mount Olivet. The sermons and dates are:

- | | |
|---|--|
| July 8 - Romans 3:9-13, 21-25 | I'm Not Ok, You're Not Ok, But That's Ok |
| July 15 - John 1:1-5, 9-14 | The Unstoppable Invitation |
| July 22 - I John 3:16-17, John 13:34-25 | Love's Sacrifice |
| July 29 - Phil. 4:13, Romans 8:28-39 | All Things Are Possible |

This should get us off to a good start. Then in August and September I will do a series entitled Key Events of the Bible. We will look at the major themes in the Bible and ask ourselves what difference they made then as well as what difference they can make now.

I look forward to meeting and getting to know each of you as the year passes. May God bless Rev. Brenda Newman as she moves to her new assignment and may God bless us as together we begin anew at Mt Olivet.

Your Pastor, Rev. Cecil Donahue

We have another 2012 Graduate!

Cameron Watson

Over his duration at Northwest Cabarrus High School, Cameron has ascended the ranks of Student Council, holding the positions of Sophomore Class President, Student Body Treasurer and Vice President, as well as Student Body President. Appealing to his passion for interacting with exceptional children, he has also held the position of Historian for A.W.S.U.M. Club, a philanthropic initiative raising money for and volunteering with Special Olympics. In addition, Cameron was inducted as a member of Beta Club, maintaining above the minimum weighted GPA of 3.8. Pertaining to community involvement, he was elected President 2011-2012 and voted Outstanding Member of the Year 2011-2012 for the City of Concord Youth Council. He was appointed by the Cabarrus County Board of Commissioners to serve on the Cabarrus County Youth Council, and has mentored Junior Cotillions for four years. After graduating with honors from Northwest, Cameron will attend High Point University as a Presidential Scholar, studying Political Science with a minor in Economics.

Do you need more exercise?

Are you looking for others to join on the journey? Are you ready get moving more than you are now? If so... Join Mount Olivet's new walking club, GO MO'!

Earn Extra Money for CCM

Whenever you shop at Food Lion with your MVP card, you can earn money for CCM! What an easy way to help! Also, remember as you are shopping to pick up a few extra cans of corn, green beans and peas and bring them to any of CCM Food Pantries.

To get started, just register your MVP card at <http://www.foodlionmvpwards.com/> and "Register Your MVP Card" with charity code 252331 for Cabarrus Cooperative Christian Ministry organization.

“Plant one more plant, one more row, one more acre,” says CCM Executive Director Ed Hosack. The “one more” is up to the gardener, but Hosack says he’d like the harvest of that plant, row or acre to be dedicated to local food pantries like Cooperative Christian Ministry to be distributed to individuals who otherwise wouldn’t be able to have the nutritious foods that gardens produce.

Any garden produce or fresh herbs can be brought to the Crisis Assistance Center at 246 Country Club Drive, Concord, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. If a large amount of food is anticipated, donors are asked to contact Barry Porter, Food Program coordinator, or Mike Wojciechowski, Crisis Ministry director at 704-786-4709.

THANK YOU!!!

* I would like to thank you for the special attention my church family has shown me during my surgery. Jim Stowe

* Mount Olivet Youth...Thank you so much for the huge gift for my children/grandchildren. You have such generous hearts! They are counting the days until they can move back into their own house. I think we need to change your name to Mount Olivet Awesome Youth!!! You are the best...Harriet Hunter

* Dear Mount Olivet Family- Thank-you so much for your generous financial support to my Eagle Scout Project. I am still collecting money for the project so that I can begin to start working at the church. Any money that is leftover will be donated back to the church. I am excited to start painting 2 rooms and building a cabinet for Mr. Ron. Please contact me if you would like to help with these projects. I plan to start working in July. Sincerely, Seth Shearon

* Thank You...Mount Olivet has beautiful new inside mail boxes that will be in the hallway behind the sanctuary. We are grateful to David Hill for his excellent craftsmanship.

July is National Hog Dog Month! So come out to Mount Olivet and eat a hot dog!!!

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR THOSE ADJUSTING TO A NEW PASTOR

1. Give your name to the new pastor for several months. He has a lot of names and faces to remember, so help him out by giving your name until he asks you to stop. And, another part of this one is, avoid playing the "You should know me by now" or the "What's my name?" games. Your new pastor will be eager to learn you and your help will be needed.
2. Always speak to the minister first. Your new minister may be uncertain as to your identity, so by all means make yourself known. And, at all costs, avoid "The new pastor doesn't even know me" game.
3. Invite your new pastor to your home for a visit, even better, for a meal. That's an excellent informal way to get to know each other.
4. Make sure you let your new pastor know when you need him. He is not a magician or a diviner; he doesn't magically know when someone is ill or facing surgery. Another game to avoid: "I was sick and the pastor didn't even come."
5. God is able to minister to you despite any particular minister's failures. But you have to let God do so. "I don't go to church because I don't like the minister" is revealing your own shortcomings and disbelief in God, not the ministers ineptness.
6. Let your minister express his uniqueness and his experience. His ideas, though different from the former pastor's, are likely better and will work, not just as well, but better. Be open to his leadership. There's more than one solution to a problem. We each have different gifts to share.
7. Related to that is commandment number 7: Be positive in your comparisons to the former pastor. Positive is, "Your way has some interesting parts compared to Rev. Newman." Negative is "That's not the way So-and-So did it." While comparisons are normal, be kind in them.
8. Adjust to the new pastor. Your former pastor's strengths and weaknesses are apparent to you, and your new pastor's strengths and weaknesses will become apparent after a while. One of the strengths of United Methodism's itinerant system is that the average United Methodist lay person will come to know the rich variety of people God has called into the ministry. Our system allows a local church to be guided by well-rounded leadership over the years.
9. Pray daily for your new pastor. He needs your prayers continually, not just as he is getting started with you. Let your pastor know that you're praying for him. You'll be surprised at how well things go for him and for you if you'll tell your pastor of your daily prayers.
10. Finally, remember to whom and to what you owe loyalty. Your loyalty belongs, not to a former minister, not to the present minister, but to Christ and His church. If you're clear on that, your new pastor will be pleased and your other loyalties will assume their appropriate places.

PRAYER COVENANT FOR ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

- I covenant to pray weekly for God's wisdom in all decisions the church makes about programs, staffing needs, facilities.
- I covenant to pray weekly for all of the staff (paid and volunteer) and leaders (elected and informal) of Mount Olivet.
- I covenant to pray weekly for all of the ministries of Mount Olivet.
- I covenant to pray weekly for all those in our community who need God's love.
- I covenant to pray weekly for God's discernment on how God wants us to reach out in the community.

Refuse to Be Lukewarm!

The church is needed more than ever in today's world! Bishop Goodpaster challenged all churches, all lay people, and all clergy to be vital, completely dedicated, and eager to share the good news of Jesus Christ with our hurting society. Specifically, the Bishop challenged all churches to start at least one new mission outreach in their community in the year ahead and to study John Wesley's sermon "The Almost Christian."

Adam Hamilton reminded us that Jesus Christ is God's answer to the questions implied in our existence. Jesus is the answer to our need for unconditional love. Jesus is the answer to our need to belong. Jesus is the answer to our need for grace. Jesus said, "Upon this rock, I will build my church." The church is God's idea and God is calling us to have a heart for people outside of the church.

Mount Olivet has many reasons to celebrate. It has consistently started new ministries and been 'outward focused' seeking to reach both physical and spiritual needs in the community. A sampling of these accomplishments is found in the list below. Keep growing the list! Make disciples! Transform the world!

As a new pastor comes on board, study the two columns below. Column 1 will likely meet your current expectations for a pastor. Column 2 however, is closer to God's call throughout the ages to disciples and preachers and prophets. It is God's vision we are called to follow and we are to hold each other accountable to God's vision. We all need to be better equipped to serve. And surely the most important question, "Is it well with your soul?"

Great Expectation of Pastors

Column 1

- Preach
- Design Worship
- Visit the sick and homebound members/extended family
- Attend Meetings
- Do pastoral counseling
- Please us

Column 2

- Be the Spiritual Leader - ask is it well with our souls?
- Teach us to pray by example and direction
- Be prophetic
- Cast God's vision to us
- Hold us accountable
- Equip us to serve

25 Ways to Build Up a Church

1. Ignite the spiritual fires of your own soul.
2. Carefully study your Bible with the aid of good resource materials.
3. Remember you are the church; the place where you study and worship on Sunday is a building.
4. Support your church fellowship with regular attendance.
5. Frequently pray for your church leaders.
- 6 Look for ways to encourage your brothers and sisters in Christ.
7. Discover your own unique and best method of witnessing to others and do it often.
8. Give freely and generously of your time, talents, money, and prayers, remembering all that you have or ever hope to have belongs to God.
9. Believe in your church and speak highly of its accomplishments and possibilities.
10. Systematically invite people to attend study and worship with you on Sunday as well as on other occasions.
11. Don't spend a lot of time criticizing others for what your church is not doing. Do something yourself.
12. When you use your church building facilities, seek to leave it better than when you found it.
13. Frequently ask your church leaders, "What can I do to help?"
14. When you are prone to criticize your minister and others, remember that they are human and therefore also make their fair share of mistakes.
15. Refuse to harbor hard feelings toward anyone.
16. When you attend a church business meeting, attend with a Christ-like spirit. Look for the good and the constructive.
17. Encourage frequent and wise use of your church building facilities.
18. Endeavor to get all the facts about events, happenings, and decisions in your church before offering your advice on most subjects.
19. Lend your enthusiastic support to new forms of worship, programming, and outreach.
20. Be an active member of a prayer and work group.
21. When your co-workers do something worth-while, tell them about it.
22. When members sin, love them, forgive them, care for them, and let bygones be bygones.
23. Dare to dream creative and constructive dreams of what your church can become.
24. Pursue your creative and constructive dreams for your church as if your church depended on you and you alone.
25. In all things for your Christian life and church, first of all ask, "What would Jesus do?"
