RULES & INFORMATION:

WATCH THIS: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EPCxqSeXd7M>

How do I get to participate?

– At packet pick up you will get a wristband that designates you are a paid participant and are eligible to participate in the post run festivities.

– Everyone that wants to be a part of the water balloon fight needs to bring a minimum of 25 water balloons in plastic bag (this will not be returned, trash bags work great). **REMEMBER, the water balloon fight is a free for all, once it begins the balloons are a community pool that everyone can use!

1. When you arrive on race day there will be a designated "Water balloon check in area" where you will drop of your balloons.
2. The water balloon fight will generally start 30-45 minutes after the last runner/walker wave. We will make announcements and have everyone line up 5 minutes before the water fight starting time. PLEASE do not grab balloons and try to start an impromptu fight yourselves before the scheduled time.
3. THERE IS NO WHERE FOR YOU TO FILL UP WATER BALLOONS ON LOCATION!!!! PLEASE BRING BALLOONS ALREADY FILLED WITH WATER!
4. General balloon/water fight rules:
  - *No heads shots. This is a family event for all ages. Please keep your aim low and be aware of the people around you so there are no injuries.
  - *No throwing outside the balloon fight area-there will be little kids and elderly watching so be careful!
  - * HAVE FUN! ☺
