Garmin Reports Record Fourth Quarter and Fiscal Year, Provides 2005 Guidance, Announces 2005 Annual Meeting

CAYMAN ISLANDS, February 9, 2005/PRNewswire/ -- Garmin Ltd. (Nasdaq: GRMN - news) today announced a record fourth quarter and fiscal year ended December 25, 2004. Revenue and net income both exceeded the guidance previously given by the company. The company's consumer segment experienced 27 percent revenue growth during the fourth quarter and 31 percent during 2004. The aviation segment also contributed revenue growth of 42 percent for the quarter and for the full year, which led to overall revenue growth of 33 percent for the year.

"2004 was another good year for Garmin. We introduced a record number (fifty) of new products in 2004. These products, which include many recreational and automotive units with beautiful TFT color displays, and a marine network system, which integrated our chart plotters, sounders, XM satellite weather receivers and radar, have all been very well received by the market," said Dr. Min Kao, CEO of Garmin Ltd. "Consumer awareness and interest in the utility of GPS navigation continue to grow, and we experienced strong demand across all product lines," continued Dr. Kao. Over 2.3 million Garmin products were shipped in 2004, raising the company's total to over ten million shipped to date, which is an important benchmark of the strength of the Garmin brand. The company also completed certification of its G1000 integrated cockpit for a total of six aircraft models (the Cessna 182 and 206, Diamond DA40 and DA42, and Mooney Ovation2 and Bravo) and started shipping this acclaimed integrated avionics system during the year.

"I am pleased to report that, with much hard work and additional investment in people and equipment, we have overcome most of the component shortage and product delivery challenges that were experienced during 2004. We were able to meet most of the product demands in the fourth quarter and, have additionally replenished our inventory to meet the anticipated demands for the coming marine and spring seasons," said Dr. Kao.

Fourth Quarter 2004

Revenue for the quarter increased 30 percent to $220.9 million from $170.1 million in the year-ago quarter, above guidance given of $200-$204 million. Net income decreased to $47.6 million, or $0.44 diluted earnings per share, compared to $54.6 million or $0.50 diluted earnings per share in the year-ago quarter. Fourth quarter net income included a $25.3 million foreign currency loss as a result of a weaker U.S. dollar compared to the Taiwan dollar. Excluding the effects of foreign currency, diluted EPS for the quarter was $0.63 compared to $0.47 in the year-ago quarter, exceeding quarterly guidance of $0.50 - $0.54.

Consumer revenue for the fourth quarter totaled $173.7 million – a 27 percent growth compared to the fourth quarter of 2003. Aviation revenue totaled $47.2 million – a 42 percent increase compared to the year-ago quarter. Total units sold for the quarter increased to 718,000 from 591,000 – representing an increase of 21 percent.

Revenue increased across North American and European regions during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2003 when compared to the year-ago quarter:

- North America revenue was $164.0 million compared to $130.0 million, up 26 percent.
- Europe revenue was $47.8 million compared to $34.0 million, up 41 percent.
- Asia revenue was $9.1 million compared to $6.1 million, up 49 percent.

"We are pleased with our financial results for the fourth quarter and fiscal year 2004," said Kevin Rauckman, chief financial officer of Garmin Ltd. "Our consumer business has now logged its thirteenth consecutive quarter of year-over-year revenue growth in excess of twenty percent. Gross margins came in above our expectations at 54.7 percent for the fourth quarter. We also generated $37.2 million of free cash flow (defined as operating cash flow less capital expenditures for property, plant, and equipment) for the quarter, resulting in a cash and marketable securities balance of $573.6 million at the end of fiscal 2004.” The company believes that free cash flow is an important measure because management uses it as a measure of the company’s quality of earnings and its ability to reinvest in the business.

Fiscal 2004 Results

Revenue for the fiscal year ending December 25, 2004 was $762.5 million – up 33 percent from the $573 million generated in the year-ago period, above guidance given of $742 - $746 million. Net income increased to $205.7 million, or $1.89 diluted earnings per share, compared to $178.6 million or $1.64 diluted earnings per share in the year-ago period. On a year-to-date basis, foreign currency fluctuations in 2004 resulted in a $24.8 million currency loss. Excluding the effects of foreign currency, diluted EPS for 2004 was $2.07, which exceeded annual guidance of $1.95-$1.98.

Consumer revenue for the fiscal year totaled $591.0 million – a 31 percent growth compared to fiscal 2003. Aviation revenue totaled $171.5 million – a 42 percent increase compared to fiscal 2003. Total units sold for the period increased to 2,306,000 from 2,066,000 – representing an increase of 12 percent.

Revenue increased across all geographic regions during fiscal 2004 when compared to 2003:

- North America revenue was $531.5 million compared to $414.6 million, up 28 percent.
- Europe revenue was $196.9 million compared to $133.2 million, up 48 percent.
- Asia revenue was $34.1 million compared to $25.2 million, up 35 percent.

Foreign Currency Translation—Non-GAAP Measures

Management believes that earnings per share before the impact of foreign currency translation gain or loss is an important measure. The majority of the company’s consolidated foreign currency translation gain or loss results from translation into New Taiwan dollars at the end of each reporting period of the significant cash and marketable securities, receivables and payables held in U.S. dollars by the company’s Taiwan subsidiary. Such translation is required under GAAP because the functional currency of this subsidiary is New Taiwan dollars. However, there is minimal cash impact from such foreign currency translation and management expects that the Taiwan subsidiary will continue to hold the majority of its cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities in U.S. dollars. Accordingly, earnings per share before the impact of foreign currency translation gain or loss allows an assessment of the company’s operating performance before the non-cash impact of the position of the U.S. dollar versus the New Taiwan dollar, which permits a consistent comparison of results between periods.

2005 Outlook

Garmin remains committed to expansion of its growing range of products and its ability to serve distributors and customers around the world. The Company looks forward to the following growth opportunities in 2005:

- The introduction of approximately sixty new products during 2005 across both our consumer and aviation segments.
- Our recently announced partnership with Chrysler’s MOPAR division to provide the Navus premium auto navigation product to a number of Chrysler, Dodge, and Jeep models.
- Continued solid growth in the aviation segment, spurred by a full year of G1000 avionics sales into popular general aviation aircraft models from Cessna, Diamond, and Mooney, as well as additional aircraft models scheduled for certification during 2005.

Diluted EPS for fiscal year 2005, excluding effects of foreign currency, is estimated to be in the range of $2.30 to $2.38 on estimated revenues of $890 million to $915 million. Due to the desire to focus more on the long term results of the company, management has elected to discontinue the practice of providing specific quarterly revenue, margin, and EPS guidance. Management will continue to provide annual guidance updates and progress reports on a quarterly basis.
