Application Questions

Geneva Glen Camp is a quality summer camp that demands high standards of conduct, hard work and long hours, and asks each staff member to be an exemplary role model to children. You live and play with children and work closely with your co-leaders. You have very little privacy, and you don't get a lot of pay. Why do you want to do this?

Please spend a little time getting to know Geneva Glen online at www.genevaglen.org. What is it about this camp that makes you want to apply?

Application Questions Continued...

What talents, experiences, and/or strengths do you have that will benefit Geneva Glen?

Why are you a good role model for children?

Define "Common Sense" - how have shown this in the past year?

What are three things you believe in?

Explain any commitments or plans that may interfere with the camping season?

About how many camps are you applying to besides Geneva Glen?

Explain any impairments, physical or mental, which would interfere with, or limit your ability to perform the job for which you have applied?

Are there any other positions you might be interested in besides the one for which you have applied?

Any dietary restrictions, limitations, or preferences?

Camp's Personnel Policies state the importance of professional conduct as well as appearance. Long hair must be clean and well kept. Hair must not be extreme in color or style. If you're thinking about getting a tattoo, don't do it. Clothing must be clean and in good shape. Pierced ornamentation on both males and females must be limited to the ears. Will any of this be a problem?

If you had the choice, which crew (dish or work) would you want to be on? Why?

Describe your experiences or skill at dealing with kids with special needs

Using a separate document, write about things that cannot be represented on an application form. Be as lengthy or brief as you want. Give us a brief biographical sketch. Talk about your interests, personality and goals. Tell us why we should consider you for a job. Why do you consider yourself to be a good role model for children? What is the most important thing that a camp can offer a child today? These are some examples of questions we would like you to consider. Thank you. You can email this document to applications@genevaglen.org

Camp Experience

Any previous experience at an organized camp is valuable to us. If you have camp experience as an employee at a camp, this is a required reference. If you have no camp experience, skip this section.

References

List the names and complete addresses, phone numbers and email addresses of four persons who will complete a reference for you. Geneva Glen may send a form or telephone these people. Use persons who will provide an objective reference and who have knowledge of your character, experience, and abilities, and who can help evaluate specifically your ability to work with children in a camp environment. You may use any Geneva Glen alum, or former Geneva Glen staff member. We also ask for one family member as a reference.
