WHY STUDY MUSIC?

Music education provides the following benefits to students:

- ♪ Teaches children to get along with others
- ♪ Music is part of well-rounded education
- ♪ Develops discipline and perseverance
- ♪ Become more tolerant of other cultures
- ♪ Provides a sense of accomplishment
- ♪ Improves overall intellectual development
- ♪ Develop teamwork skills

The list is endless.

ABOUT THE LESSONS?

- ♪ User pay system, $14 per group lesson, $40 per lesson for individual tuition and $20 each per shared lesson (2 people only) paid in advance to the teacher. The teacher will invoice you each term. These fees are just below the standard Music Teachers Association of Queensland Rates for 30 minute lessons.
- ♪ $30 per year administration fee paid directly to the school. The school will invoice you for this amount.
- ♪ Lessons on a rotational basis / not missing out on the same half hour each week.
- ♪ Students will have a timetable to glue into their handbooks that is proof of their participation in the program.
- ♪ Students will be placed in groups according to development, music interest and age.
- ♪ Music will need to be purchased from time to time and parents are invoiced accordingly.

WHAT IF I MISS MY LESSON?

- ♪ If a student is at school but doesn't turn up for the lesson, that lesson will not be made up.
- ♪ If a student is absent from school due to illness, a letter is required from the parents explaining the absence.
- ♪ If a parent knows in advance that their child will be absent, and the teacher is notified, that lesson will be made up.
- ♪ Other situations such as prolonged illness will be handled on a case by case basis.

WHAT IF I HAVE AN EXAM OR EXCURSION?

Students are responsible for getting organised and talking to their teachers about possible clashes with examinations and excursions etc and they are responsible for giving the guitar teacher appropriate notification.

DROPPING OUT

'Dropping out' of the program affects group lessons badly, as well as the teachers livelihood, so, if a students does not wish to continue lessons, a half-term's notice is required, with a letter from parents, or a half-term's fees-in lieu.

WHAT TO DO NOW

Please consider these conditions carefully and discuss them with your child. The Guitar Tuition Program is not designed to expect your child to become a guitar genius. It is designed so that the students can learn more about the instrument and take the enjoyment of playing into their adult life.

If you are agreeable to the above conditions, please return the attached personal details and confirmation slip to Mrs Overs in the music staff room as soon as possible and she will allocate you a group / lesson time.
