Don't miss it!!

From the Dean...

May 2012

Dear friends,

Hopefully, by now, you have all rested and recovered from the events of Holy Week and Easter. It seems that the season after Easter adheres to a somewhat slower pace with glimpses and longing of the summer ahead. Our work as an AGO Chapter this year is nothing short of commendable, especially as we continue our work in great anticipation of the AGO National Convention in just a little over two months! I believe that our energies will go into “overdrive” to sustain our AGO Chapter through what will be one of the best National Conventions to date!

On May 6, we will experience our last program of the AGO season: A Celebration of Psalms at Westminster Presbyterian Church. It will be a preview of one of the three Convention worship services. We will also install the new officers and board members for the 2012 – 2013 season during dinner and the AGO meeting. It is my hope that most of the Nashville AGO Chapter will be in attendance that evening.

Finally, it has been a great privilege and experience for me to serve as your Dean-Elect and Dean for the past two years. The time has flown by and I’ve certainly learned so much just from experiencing a major leadership role in our very active AGO Chapter. I would like to thank the Chapter at large, and especially the executive board for entrusting me, as a younger musician and leader in our community, to fulfill the visions and goals of the AGO. I look forward to acting as your Dean through the Convention and serving in any capacity that I’m capable of doing.

Yours,

Jon Johnson
Dean, Nashville Chapter AGO
