Sponsorship Opportunities

APCOM is a voluntary not-for-profit organisation that provides unique training and networking opportunities within the public sector

The Association of Print and Communication Managers relies heavily on sponsorship to help deliver its annual agenda.

Sponsorship packages for 2013 include the opportunity to become a key sponsor of APCOM for 12 months (including our website, for platinum sponsors).

APCOM's flagship event is its annual conference and awards dinner. Sponsorship is sought to help cover the cost of providing this event and help where possible in reducing the delegate rates.

We need to secure sponsorship prior to advertising our event.

We also provide additional conference sponsorship opportunities for sponsors who wish to participate in the event at a more limited budget. Packages from £100 - £2,000 are negotiable under the following categories:

Entertainment Sponsor:

Network Evening (1st Night) – @ £2,000 (Full Sponsor)

Awards Dinner (2nd Night) – @ £2,000 (Part Sponsor)

Sponsors of entertainment will benefit from branded event signage and 2 tickets to attend the evening of their choice, no accommodation.

Gift sponsor

Package negotiable (gift can be provided by the sponsor).

Prize sponsors

Package negotiable (prize can be provided by the sponsor).

Advertising

Quarter, Half and Full Page (A4) Colour Adverts from £250.

All sponsorship monies must be paid in advance and a letter of guarantee/purchase order number supplied before the 1st December 2012 to ensure your chosen package. Gold and Platinum packages will require payment prior to 1st January, all other sponsors payments will be required by 31st January – failure to pay on time could result in you losing your chosen package.
