PARISH NEWS:

Easter (also called “Pascha” or some variant by most non - English speaking Christians) celebrates the resurrection of Jesus from the dead, and it is the greatest and oldest feast of the Church. Even the term “Pascha” is borrowed from the Jewish word for “Passover,” and Easter is calculated based on the lunar calendar (all other feasts are on the solar calendar). These facts show the ancient, Apostolic, origins of Easter. We even possess a baptismal liturgy of Easter dating to the mid - third century.

Traditionally, the Pascha celebration began with a lengthy vigil, the “mother of all vigils” according to St. Augustine. The whole history of salvation is retold during the vigil, through scripture and liturgy. At the Easter Vigil, three traditions developed: the baptism of new converts, lighting of the paschal candle, and the blessing of the new fire (taken from the Jewish blessing of the lamp on the eve of the Sabbath). The new fire is used to light the Paschal candle. Eucharist is then celebrated, being also the first Eucharist of new converts. The Church also celebrates the octave of Easter. These eight days are all solemnities. Actually, these days even take precedence over other solemnities that can fall within the Octave of Easter, including the Annunciation.

Easter follows Holy Week, and is the third and final day of the Paschal Triduum, the three day period which began on the evening of Holy Thursday. The evening prayer of Easter Day officially ends the Triduum. The Triduum contains the heart of the Christian faith: Jesus’ death and resurrection. Easter is not just a day, but an entire fifty day season, called Eastertide, marked by joyful festivities and liturgical fullness. You might hear “Christ is Risen!” and “Alleluia!” frequently during the Easter season, because we are joyfully celebrating Christ’s bodily resurrection. The Feast of the Ascension falls with Easter season. The 50 day season of Easter runs up to, and includes, the Feast of Pentecost.

On behalf of the Priests, Deacons, Sisters and Staff of St. Columba Church, we wish you a Blessed Easter!!!

On Monday, March 28th, all of our Parish Offices will be CLOSED for the Easter Holiday. Please note that our morning Mass on Monday the 28th will be at 8:00am!

What a wonderful surprise when I opened our Birthright mail this morning. Your generous $1,000 donation to Birthright comes at a very good time. We are in the process of gathering ourselves to move to new office space to better serve our moms and babies.
