CVCS Mission Statement
CVCS offers a rigorous academic program designed to meet the individual needs of each student. CVCS will promote leadership, civic responsibility, and environmental awareness. Through community engagement, CVCS students will understand their effects on the world around them. The School offers the community a parent-driven public school choice in which teachers, students, and parents are partners.

A HUGE thank you to everyone who brought food, shopped, participated, and made the Talent Show a great place for kids!

No phone service at CVCS east between 8:30 and 11:30 April 18-29 while students are testing. Call Jill at 575-418-8696 if necessary.

Meet Shaylee Vega, CVCS Superstar!

Age: 6 Grade: K How many years have you attended CVCS? 1 Born: Albuquerque

Favorites: Food: macaroni & cheese TV show: Sheriff Callie Ice cream: chocolate/vanilla swirl
Book: Baby Beluga Word: supercalifragilisticexpialidocious Season: fall
Sport team: the Lobos Animal: horse Movie: Into the Woods Candy: gum
Sport: swimming Color: pink, blue, purple

Shaylee has an older sister, Liliana-9. She has five dogs named Bailey, Lucy, Abbey, Max, and Bentley; one cat named Fluffy; two steers named Olaf and Sully; three pigs named Charlotte, Wilbur, and Ringo; two horses named Spaghetti and Rocky; two rabbits named Puddle and Cuddle; and two fish named Ocean and Blue. In her free time, (wait! Shaylee has no free time!-ed.) she likes to ride horses, brand and gather cattle, ride her bike and scooter at Memaw and Papa's house, and help her daddy on the ranch. Shaylee has been to Disneyland and the ocean!

What would you do if you were trapped in a cave with a crowbar, a firecracker, a jar of peanut butter, a 7' King snake, and a trumpet? I would use the crowbar to break a door in the cave. Then I would use the firecracker to get help. Then I would throw the peanut butter away because I think peanut butter is YUCKY! I would jump on something to get away from the snake, and then I would use the trumpet to make music!

When Shaylee grows up, she may want to be a pediatrician or a nurse. Congratulations, Shaylee, you are a superstar!

Congratulations District
