

INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC & BUSINESS LAW (LL.M.)
APPLICATION GUIDELINES FOR PRIVATELY FUNDED STUDENTS
(October 2015 Admissions)

1. Introduction

Please read the following Application Guidelines before submitting an application.

In 1994, the Graduate School of Law at Kyushu University established Japan's first Master's level program taught entirely in English: the LL.M. program in International Economic and Business Law (IEBL). Drawing upon faculty members with particular strengths in these fields of law, the IEBL program is designed to provide both Japanese and international students with the ability to confront the many challenges of contemporary international economic affairs and commercial transactions. Taught in English from a Japanese perspective, the IEBL program seeks to develop a critical understanding of economic and legal principles within the framework of international & comparative law.

Please note these guidelines only cover admission for the LL.M. Program in Law for privately funded students OR students NOT receiving a Japanese Government Scholarship or a Japanese Embassy Scholarship.

Any applicant wishing to receive a Japanese Government Scholarship or a Japanese Embassy Scholarship should apply separately.

For full details on the IEBL LL.M. program, see: <http://www.law.kyushu-u.ac.jp/programs/english/>

2. Admission Requirements

For admission to the IEBL, applicants must meet the following requirements:

1. A degree in Law from an accredited university.
2. A good command of English. A TOEFL score of 237+ (computer-based), 580+ (paper-based), or 92+ (Internet-based) or equivalent is required for non-native English speakers.
3. Sufficient financial support for the duration of the program. Further details on the costs of studying for the IEBL, including tuition and other fees, are available at the program web site.

3. Application Materials

Applicants are requested to submit by registered airmail or equivalent (i.e. Federal Express, DHL etc.), an original and one copy of the following documents to the Faculty of Law, Kyushu University before May 8, 2015 (applications arriving after that date cannot be accepted):

1. Completed IEBL* Application Form. Please note: (1) It is very important that the name that you include in Section 1 of the Application Form is the same as the name in your passport. The Student Visa of successful applicants will be issued with the name provided in Section 1, and it can cause problems at immigration when entering Japan if the names are different. (2) Nationality. You must indicate if you have dual nationality or Japanese nationality.
2. A photocopy of Graduation Certificate of the last university and graduate school attended, OR a Certified Letter from the university at which the applicant is currently attending, stating the expected graduation date.
3. Official School Transcript of the last school from which the applicant graduated and that which the applicant is currently attending.
4. Two Letters of Recommendation from the Dean, the applicant's supervising professor or other teaching staff who have had direct contact with the applicant; or from a supervisor in the employing body with personal knowledge of the applicant (forms attached below).
5. For non-native speakers, proof of English proficiency must be provided. A TOEFL score of 237+ (computer-based), 580+ (paper-based), or 92+ (Internet-based) or equivalent is required for non-native English speakers.

All application materials should be typed in English on the attached forms or additional sheets of A4 paper. In the event materials required above are in a language other than English or Japanese, a translation into one of these languages must be attached.

Application materials will not be returned to applicants.

4. Application Procedure & Notification of Result

After receiving the application, Kyushu University may decide to hold an interview.

Interviews will be held either by Skype, phone or in person (if the candidate lives in Fukuoka).

Applicants will be informed of the result of their application by early-July 2015.

5. Tuition & Fees

On enrollment, all incoming students must pay an Examination Fee and Entrance Fee, in addition to the Tuition Fees.

For the academic year 2014-2015, the fees were as follows:

Tuition Fees (for one year): ¥535,800

Registration Fee: ¥30,000

Entrance Fee: ¥282,000

Please note that this amount is subject to annual review. The final amount for 2015-16 is available upon request from admission@law.kyushu-u.ac.jp.

A fee waiver scheme operates for students demonstrating a high level of academic performance. Please note that it is rare for students to receive a waiver on the Entrance Fee, and for the Tuition Fee successful candidates normally only receive a remission of up to 50%.

6. Warning

Successful applicants will have their enrollment at Kyushu University withdrawn immediately in the event of any of the following:

- If the applicant is found to have made false statements on his/her application.
- If the applicant is subject to disciplinary measures or has been found to have no promise for academic achievement by the University.
- If the applicant is absent from University for a prolonged period of time without permission.
- If the student has insufficient resources to finance their studies in Kyushu University.
