Contemporary Jewellery Awards

8th October

What are the ENJOIA'T Prizes?

ENJOIA'T, Prize for Contemporary Jewellery Making, is a unique event within the sector, which has been rewarding the most outstanding proposals within the field of jewellery making for professionals as well as students.

However, ENJOIA'T is not just a prize, and you will find not just jewellery. ENJOIA'T is much more than all this, since it is also a celebration of creativity, an indispensable meeting point for professionals in the sector, and a platform from which to show the public your creative project.

In fact, ENJOIA'T rewards originality, technical quality, conceptual richness and transgression in the field of jewellery making so much as to question its own limits.

Do you dare to join?

2015

Registration

The registration form must be properly filled out and be accompanied by the dossier. The proper fees must be paid in full at the moment of registration, in cash at our offices or by bank transfer into the association's account.

The contest

Phase one: Selection

All of the participants must send a dossier in digital format (CD or flash drive) that includes:

- Curriculum Vitae.
- Up to 5 digital images of the piece you are presenting (in tiff or jpeg format, 300dpi, 10 x 15 cm minimum). Each artist may present one piece only or a collection.
The materials, dimensions and theme are open.
- Technical sheet (dimensions, technique, year and materials).
- Conceptual report.
- Supporting documents of student status (as necessary).*
- Supporting documents of unemployed status (as necessary).

The specified registration materials must be handed in to the offices of the A-FAD, Calle Badajoz, 175-177, 08018, Barcelona.

Deadline 15 July, 2015.

The dossiers received for the selection will be placed in the documental archive of the A-FAD.

The selection will be made based on the dossiers. A maximum of 20 participants will enter the second phase of the competition and will participate in the exposition that will take place at the Arts Santa Mònica building, from October 8th to October 10th, incorporated in the context of the event JOYA, Barcelona Contemporary Jewellery Fair in Barcelona.

The selected participants must present their piece on either Tuesday the 6th or Wednesday the 7th of October.

The Second Phase: The Awards

The jury will meet the semi-finalists in the Arts Santa Monica building on Thursday, October 8th, 2015.

Each piece must be worn (by the participant or someone else), and the participant will have 5 minutes to present it and defend it before the jury. Besides the technical and innovative aspects of the piece, the originality of the presentation/defence will be evaluated. Thus, the participant may utilize the elements he or she thinks convenient to help in the presentation.

At 20:00 the Celebration of the ENJOIA'T Awards 2015 will begin in the Fàbrica Moritz Barcelona (Ronda de Sant Antoni 39, 08011 Barcelona), in which the 20 participants will display their pieces in public. All of the attendees will be able to vote to choose the winner of the Public Opinion Award.

At the end of the celebration, the jury will make their decision public, and they will hand out the diplomas to the winners and finalists.

Categories and prizes

The prizes will be announced and handed out the 8th of October.

Professional Award

There is one prize only for creators, designers or companies, with a maximum of two finalists. The winner will be crowned with a piece made by Rodrigo Acosta, winner of the ENJOIA'T Professional Award of 2014, and will be given the responsibility of making the crown for the following year. The prize consists of an exposition in the context of the event JOYA, Barcelona Contemporary Jewellery Fair, in its edition of 2016, valued at 780 €. Both the professional and student award-winners of ENJOIA'T will be part of a report in the specialised magazine On Diseño.

Student Award

There is one prize only for students with a maximum of two finalists. The winner will be crowned with a piece made by Anna Norrgrann, winner of the ENJOIA'T Student Award of 2014, and will be given the responsibility of making the crown for the following year. The prize consists of an exposition in the context of the event JOYA, Barcelona Contemporary Jewellery Fair, in its edition of 2016, valued at 780 €. Both the professional and student award-winners of ENJOIA'T will be part of a report in the specialised magazine On Diseño.

Public Opinion Award

There is one prize chosen by the attendees of the celebration.

The prizes and the finalists of each category, as with those of the public opinion award, will receive an official diploma.

The crowns will become part of the permanent collection of the A-FAD, Artists and Artisans of the FAD.

Jury

The selecting jury of ENJOIA'T 2015 will be composed of:

- Ramon Puig Cuyàs; contemporary jeweller
- Jorge Manilla; contemporary jeweller
- Monika Szpatowicz; subdirector of the Srebro Festival in the Legnica Gallery in Poland
- Piotr Rybaczek; director of the Basílica Gallery in Barcelona
- Magda Polo; doctor of philosophy of art and president of the A-FAD

The jury will evaluate aspects of originality, innovation and aesthetics. The conceptual value as well as the quality of the technical production and originality of the presentation will be taken into account.

The jury has no responsibility to resolve any unforeseen contingencies and they reserve the right to leave the categories unawarded.

The jury's decision will be final.

Students are those people who can demonstrate their status with a registration sheet or certificate of studies.*

The unemployed are those people who can demonstrate their status with the certificate of unemployment or a registration sheet from their local unemployment office as job seekers.*

* The exposition will take place within the JOYA, Barcelona Contemporary Jewellery Fair. The organisation will provide the winners with the necessary materials for the exposition. The winners are responsible for assuming the costs in the case that they wish to use any extra materials and they must consult the organisation previous to any such action in order to confirm that it is in keeping with the global design of JOYA. Given that the exposition will be within the fair and its commercial format, the winners, as well as the rest of the JOYA participants, must be present in the place of their exposition during the three days of the fair itself, and they are responsible for the care and vigilance of the objects in the exposition. Additionally, the fair will have professionals watching to ensure the total security of the jewellery.*
