

Employee Performance Review Worksheet

The performance evaluation process provides an opportunity for both employees and managers to work together to build and improve performance and to contribute to the strategic goals of the City.

Employees are encouraged to complete the Employee Self-rating portion of the worksheet and submit it to your manager prior to your formal performance review meeting. This will allow you the opportunity to provide performance highlights, personal goals for professional development and other valuable information related to your performance for the previous evaluation year.

Employee Name	Reviewer Name	Department
Employee Title	Reviewer Title	Date

Instructions

Step One

Employees- Rate yourself on each criterion in the Employee Self-rating section. Please provide brief comments as to why you feel that the selected rating reflects your performance over the evaluation year. Upon completion, submit your evaluation to your manager to be discussed during your formal performance review meeting.

Step Two

Managers- Upon receipt of the employee's self-rating, conduct your assessment of the employee's performance. Only performance during the evaluation year 2009 should be considered.

Step Three

Once complete, managers will schedule a formal performance review meeting with the employee to discuss results and goals for the upcoming evaluation year.

Step Four

Submit completed forms to Human Resources.
