Interfaith Week Faith Walk 2014

Welcome to the Faith Walk 2014 at Broadway Academy. We're really pleased you're taking part, and hope you'll enjoy the day.

National Interfaith week started in the UK in 2009, seeking to encourage people of different faiths to speak to each other about their beliefs and work with each other.

Our walk fits right in the middle of Inter faith week which began on Monday 17th November

We are visiting 4 places of worships this morning. They are;

Faisal Islam Masjid	(Mosque – Islam)
Sri Dashmesh Gurdwara	(Temple – Sikh)
Sri Geeta Bhawan Mandir	(Temple – Hindu)
Holy Trinity Church	(Church – Christian)

You'll be given a tour at each place and short talk. You'll also be invited to ask questions, so do take the opportunity to do so. Please be respectful of each place and take your shoes off and cover your head if necessary/asked to do so. You might not agree with everything that is said, but please be respectful – nobody's saying you're not allowed to disagree.

In some places they will offer you something to eat or drink. Please have a little, it's a mark of respect.

Programme for the day

Code of Conduct

I recognise I represent my faith, my school and The Feast. I agree to:

1. Remain with the group and activity at all times.
2. Make the most of the day by participating in all activities.
3. Refrain from inappropriate words or physical contact with others.
4. Use phrases and language that others in the group will understand.
5. Make amends should my conduct become inappropriate.
6. Behave respectfully towards those of other faiths at all times.

Guidelines for Dialogue

Here are some guidelines to help you get the most out of today. Everyone here will be asked to follow these guidelines in the discussions.

They are not meant to restrict you, but enable you to discuss things that may be very important to you and to others.

1. We will listen to what everyone has to say
2. We will be honest in what we say
3. We will speak positively of our own faith, not negatively of other people's
4. We will respect other people's views, even if we disagree with them
5. We will not treat people here as a spokesperson for their faith.
6. We will not tell others what they believe, but will let them tell us
7. We will acknowledge similarities and differences between our faiths
8. We will not judge people here by what some people of their faith do
9. We will not try and force people to agree with our views
10. We can ask for a discussion to be stopped if we feel uncomfortable with what is being said
11. We will make an effort to get along with everyone regardless of their faith, gender, race or age.

Which of these are you most happy to see here?

The Broadway

How long has this Mosque been here?

How do they worship here?

What do they do in the community?

What does their faith say about respecting others?

What did they say was the best thing about their belief system?

My reflections:

1. What was the most important thing you learned about this place of worship?
2. What were you most surprised by during this visit?
3. Is there anything you have in common with people from this religion?
4. One thing I enjoyed about this visit was:
