ASSIGNOR has applied to the Bureau of Real Estate of the State of California for a license to act as a Prepaid Rental Listing Service, or for the renewal of said license and is required by Section 10167.7 of the Business and Professions Code to provide a cash deposit in the amount of $10,000.00 for each licensed location. This assignment is made in accordance with and pursuant to Section 10167.7.

This assignment includes any and all rights arising out of insurance of the principal amount of the account by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or other insurer, but ASSIGNOR retains for himself all rights to interest earned on the principal and all rights arising out of insurance of the unpaid interest earned on the principal amount.

ASSIGNOR hereby gives to ASSIGNEE or his duly appointed representative the authority to withdraw funds from the account at any time without notice to ASSIGNOR for the purpose of paying unsatisfied judgments in accordance with Section 10167.7. This authority of ASSIGNEE shall include the power to convert a Certificate of Deposit or similar evidence of a deposit to cash as necessary to make payments for the benefit of unsatisfied judgment creditors notwithstanding the fact that such conversion may result in an interest penalty.

The Certificate of Deposit or other certificate evidencing the above identified account shall be retained in the custody of ASSIGNEE while this assignment remains in effect. This assignment shall remain effective until ASSIGNEE shall determine that there is no longer any potential liability of ASSIGNOR under Section 10167.10 of the Code.
