- (a) Obligation for Assessments: Each Owner of a lot by acceptance of a deed therefor, whether or not it shall be so expressed in any such deed, shall be deemed to covenant and agree to pay to the Association annual and special assessments to be fixed and collected from time to time as hereinafter provided. The annual and special assessments, together with such interest thereon and costs of collection thereof as hereinafter provided, shall be a charge and continuing lien upon the property against which each such assessment is made and shall also be the personal obligation of the person who was the Owner of such property at the time when the assessment fell due.

The obligations herein imposed are to be construed in light of the holding of the Belknap County Superior Court in the matter of Tentindo et al v. Locke Lake Colony Association, Belknap Equity #11-972, case upheld by the New Hampshire Supreme Court in the matter of Tentindo et al v. Locke Lake Colony Association, 120 N.H. 593 (1980), which cases impose upon Association members, their heirs and assigns, liability for assessments imposed by the Association's Annual Meeting duly convened.

- (b) Purpose of Assessments: The assessments levied by the Association shall be used exclusively for the purpose of promoting the pleasure, recreation and social welfare of the residents of the Property, including, without limitation, the improvement, operation and maintenance of, and the payment of taxes and insurance on, the Common Property, and the acquisition of labor, equipment, materials, management, and supervision of the Common Property.

- (h) Certificate of Payment: The Board of Directors, upon demand by any Owner liable for an assessment, shall furnish to such Owner a certificate in writing signed by a member of said Board, setting forth whether said assessment has been paid. Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of payment and any assessment therein stated to have been paid.
- (i) Effect of Non-Payment of Assessment: Any assessment which is not paid when due, together with such interest thereon and cost of collection thereof as hereinafter provided, shall become a continuing lien on the Lot and appurtenant interest of the delinquent Owner, which shall bind such property in the hands of said Owner, his heirs, devisee, representatives and assigns. The personal obligation of the said Owner to pay such assessment, as opposed to the continuing lien, shall remain his personal obligation and shall not pass to his successors in title unless expressly assumed by them. Any annual assessment which is not paid by July 15, in its year of assessment, and any special assessment not paid within forty-five (45) days of its due date, shall bear interest from said due date at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum, and the Association may bring an action against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same or may foreclose the lien against said property in the manner provided by statute for the foreclosure of power of sale mortgages, and there shall be added to the amount of such assessment the cost of processing such action, or foreclosing said lien, including reasonable attorneys' fees, and said interest.

- (j) Subordination of the Lien: The lien of the assessments provided for herein shall be subordinate to the lien of any first mortgage now or hereafter placed upon the properties.

Section 5: Rules and Regulations

The Board of Directors is authorized to adopt from time to time rules and regulations for the use and operation of the Common Property which shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the Common Property and Owners shall be required to conduct themselves, and to see that their lessees, renters and guests conduct themselves, in accordance with said rules and regulations.

Rights and Responsibilities for Better Communities

Principles for Homeowners and Community Leaders

Homeowners Have the Right To:

1. A responsive and competent community association.
2. Honest, fair and respectful treatment by community leaders and managers.
3. Participate in governing the community association by attending meetings, serving on committees and standing for election.
4. Access appropriate association books and records.
5. Prudent expenditure of fees and other assessments.
6. Live in a community where the property is maintained according to established standards.
7. Fair treatment regarding financial and other association obligations, including the opportunity to discuss payment plans and options with the association before foreclosure is initiated.
8. Receive all documents that address rules and regulations governing the community association—if not prior to purchase and settlement by a real estate agent or attorney, then upon joining the community.
9. Appeal to appropriate community leaders those decisions affecting non-routine financial responsibilities or property rights.

Homeowners Have the Responsibility To:

1. Read and comply with the governing documents of the community.
2. Maintain their property according to established standards.
3. Treat association leaders honestly and with respect.
4. Vote in community elections and on other issues.
5. Pay association assessments and charges on time.
6. Contact association leaders or managers, if necessary, to discuss financial obligations and alternative payment arrangements.
7. Request reconsideration of material decisions that personally affect them.
8. Provide current contact information to association leaders or managers to help ensure they receive information from the community.
9. Ensure that those who reside on their property (e.g., tenants, relatives, friends) adhere to all rules and regulations.

Community Leaders Have the Right To:

1. Expect owners and non-owner residents to meet their financial obligations to the community.
2. Expect residents to know and comply with the rules and regulations of the community and to stay informed by reading materials provided by the association.
3. Respectful and honest treatment from residents.
4. Conduct meetings in a positive and constructive atmosphere.
5. Receive support and constructive input from owners and non-owner residents.

6. Personal privacy at home and during leisure time in the community.
7. Take advantage of educational opportunities (e.g., publications, training workshops) that are directly related to their responsibilities, and as approved by the association.

Community Leaders Have the Responsibility To:

1. Fulfill their fiduciary duties to the community and exercise discretion in a manner they reasonably believe to be in the best interests of the community.
2. Exercise sound business judgment and follow established management practices.
3. Balance the needs and obligations of the community as a whole with those of individual homeowners and residents.
4. Understand the association's governing documents and become educated with respect to applicable state and local laws, and to manage the community association accordingly.
5. Establish committees or use other methods to obtain input from owners and non-owner residents.
6. Conduct open, fair and well-publicized elections.
7. Welcome and educate new members of the community—owners and non-owner residents alike.
8. Encourage input from residents on issues affecting them personally and the community as a whole.
9. Encourage events that foster neighborliness and a sense of community.
10. Conduct business in a transparent manner when feasible and appropriate.
11. Allow homeowners access to appropriate community records, when requested.
12. Collect all monies due from owners and non-owner residents.
13. Devise appropriate and reasonable arrangements, when needed and as feasible, to facilitate the ability of individual homeowners to meet their financial obligations to the community.
14. Provide a process residents can use to appeal decisions affecting their non-routine financial responsibilities or property rights—where permitted by law and the association's governing documents.
15. Initiate foreclosure proceedings only as a measure of last resort.
16. Make covenants, conditions and restrictions as understandable as possible, adding clarifying “lay” language or supplementary materials when drafting or revising the documents.
17. Provide complete and timely disclosure of personal and financial conflicts of interest related to the actions of community leaders, e.g., officers, the board and committees. (Community associations may want to develop a code of ethics.)
