

Donor Fund Agreement

When you make a gift to the Three Rivers Community Foundation, you have the option of establishing one or more types of funds from which grants will be made for charitable purposes. Through your choice of fund, you may select your desired level of involvement in the grantmaking process. All funds are managed carefully and prudently by professional investment managers and administered by Three Rivers Community Foundation. Our goal is to protect donor intent, while at the same time comply with federal tax requirements. The Foundation retains the right to make final decisions regarding the management, administration and distribution of all funds.

Funds of the Three Rivers Community Foundation

Three Rivers Community Fund (Unrestricted). A gift to the Three Rivers Community Fund helps meet the changing needs of our area, now and in the future. The Three Rivers Community Fund broadly supports the well-being and vitality of the region and its residents, and is distributed to qualified organizations seeking support from the Foundation. When you contribute to the Three Rivers Community Fund, you leave decisions about the use of your gift to the Foundation, relying on the Foundation’s extensive experience and reach within the community to know which needs are most pressing.

Donor Advised Fund. Donors who want a more active role in grantmaking can establish a Donor Advised Fund. This allows you to recommend charitable organizations to receive grants from your fund. The Three Rivers Community Foundation helps you by verifying the charitable status and mission of the organizations and identifying organizations you may want to support. Other family members can also be named as advisors, thereby encouraging children and grandchildren to carry on family philanthropy.

Area of Interest Fund. Donors who feel strongly about a particular cause or a particular geographical area but do not wish to take an active role in grantmaking may want to establish or contribute to an Area of Interest Fund. This type of fund allows you to identify and support a charitable purpose (i.e., alleviation of poverty, education, etc.), a category of interest (i.e., arts, education, human services, etc.), and/or a geographic area that you feel passionate about supporting.

Designated Fund. Donors with strong ties to a particular organization or institution may want to establish a designated fund. With a Designated Fund, you “designate” a charitable organization that your fund will support (e.g., a theater, a food bank, a school) during and beyond your lifetime. The Foundation actively monitors all its grantees. If the beneficiary organization ceases to exist, loses its tax-exempt status, or changes its mission, your gift is redirected to support an organization with a similar mission.

Scholarship Fund. Donors (individuals or corporations) specifically interested in promoting education often establish Scholarship Funds – an advised fund for the purpose of making grants to be used exclusively for tuition and fees at accredited educational institutions (a “scholarship fund”). Scholarships may support any level of education, and can be directed toward students attending a particular school, studying in a particular field, or coming from a particular geographical area. The Three Rivers Community Foundation helps you administer the funds within the tax laws regarding scholarship grants. If you wish, the Foundation also can help you establish selection criteria, publicize the scholarship, and choose scholarship recipients. The Foundation requires that all scholarship programs developed by a scholarship advisory committee be submitted to it for approval in advance of any solicitation of applications.

Memorial Fund. Donors may wish to set up a Memorial Fund to remember and honor a lost loved one. The Foundation will help manage incoming contributions to the Memorial Fund, as well as help guide the gift to reflect the giving wishes of the person in whose memory the fund is established.

Nonprofit Agency Endowment Funds. Nonprofit organizations can establish Endowment Funds at Three Rivers Community Foundation. With this type of fund, the nonprofit organization is the designated charitable recipient for distributions from the fund. Establishing an Endowment Fund is a simple and efficient way to build and secure endowment funds for the future. A Nonprofit Agency Endowment Fund offers the advantages of protecting the nonprofit organization's endowment funds to meet its future needs, increasing investment yield by pooling assets with the Three Rivers Community Foundation's other funds, and reducing administrative costs and burdens on the nonprofit organization's staff. Although an Endowment Fund is established by the nonprofit organization itself, donations by individuals and other organizations to these funds are welcome. If the designated organization ceases to exist, loses its tax-exempt status or changes its mission, grants from the fund will be redirected to support a nonprofit organization with a similar mission. Please contact the Three Rivers Community Foundation for more information on how to establish a Nonprofit Agency Endowment Fund.

Pass Through Fund. Pass through funds are held by the Foundation for the purpose of spending down the initial contribution rather than adding to the endowment. This provides the option to donors to make annual gifts from which the entire principal is granted for particular purposes. This option is attractive to organizations raising money for specific capital projects.

Fund Terms & Conditions

Tax Status of Funds. Donor funds established at the Three Rivers Community Foundation (the "Foundation") are component funds of the Three Rivers Community Foundation, a 501(c)(3) public charity. Accordingly, all contributions to the Foundation's donor funds are treated for tax purposes as gifts to a 501(c)(3) public charity and generally are tax deductible, subject to individual and corporate limitations.

Variance Power. All donor funds established at the Foundation are subject to the Foundation's "variance power," as set forth in its By-laws. The variance power gives the Foundation the authority to modify any donor recommendation or condition on distributions from a fund for any specified charitable purpose or to any specified charitable organization if, in the sole judgment of the Foundation, such recommendation or condition becomes unnecessary, incapable of fulfillment, or inconsistent with the charitable needs of the community.

Spending Policy. The Foundation anticipates distributions from each fund at least annually of an appropriate percentage of the fund's market value, as determined by the Foundation's Board of Directors (five (5) percent for 2005). In determining the annual distribution amount, the Foundation's Board of Directors may consider the expected total return on the investments of the Foundation's permanent funds, the desirability of maintaining the value of the Foundation's permanent funds, and any other factors that it deems relevant.

Distributions. All distributions from donor funds are subject to the Foundation's variance power and its spending policy, as noted above.

Restrictions on Grants from Funds. Distributions from donor funds established at the Foundation will be made only if they are consistent with the Foundation's charitable purposes and satisfy community needs identified by the Foundation as deserving of its support. Fund distributions will not be made for memberships, pledges, sponsorships, tickets, or for any purpose that would otherwise provide a benefit to the donor recommending the distribution. It is the Foundation's policy that distributions from donor funds may not be made to any specific individual (other than for scholarships). Distributions from donor funds will not be made for political campaign or legislative activities.

Investment of Assets. All assets contributed to funds established at the Three Rivers Community Foundation will be managed in the Three Rivers Community Foundation's General Fund, unless otherwise requested by the donor in writing. Assets may be managed by an independent trustee, custodian, investment advisor or other fiduciary (an "Outside Investment Manager") apart from the Foundation's General Fund, provided that all such assets are managed in accordance with the Three Rivers Community Foundation's Investment Policy. All Outside Investment Managers shall be provided with a copy of and must agree to adhere to the Three Rivers Community Foundation's Investment Policy as a condition of continued service in such capacity, and the Foundation reserves the right to replace any Outside Investment Manager in its sole discretion. Minimum fund values are required for investment of assets outside of the General Fund. For more information about the requirements for using an Outside Investment Manager, contact the Foundation.

Fees. Donor funds established at the Foundation are subject to an administrative and investment fee, currently one (1.5) percent annually, with a reduced fee structure above $500,000. The Foundation reserves the right to change its fee structure at any time.

Solicitation Policy. Donors who wish to solicit contributions for a Fund at the Three Rivers Community Foundation are required to use the following language in any solicitation: "Funds raised at this event (or for this cause, or for this project) will be added to The [insert name] Fund at the Three Rivers Community Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization. The Three Rivers Community Foundation reserves the right to modify any restriction or condition on distributions from The [insert name] Fund if such restriction or condition becomes unnecessary, incapable of fulfillment, or inconsistent with community needs. All checks should be made payable to The [insert name] Fund/Three Rivers Community Foundation.”

Conflict of Terms. In the event of an inconsistency between these Terms and Conditions and any terms and conditions appearing elsewhere in connection with any fund, these Terms and Conditions as interpreted by the Foundation shall govern, and the Foundation reserves the right to take any actions at any time which, in its discretion, it deems reasonably necessary or desirable for the proper administration of any fund or the Foundation.

Terms Applicable to Donor Advised Funds

Characteristics of Donor Advised Funds. Donors establishing advised funds are encouraged to make recommendations regarding distributions from the fund for specific charitable purposes or to one or more charitable organizations. Donor advice will be considered only if offered in writing (including facsimile transmission or electronic correspondence) by the donor(s), or by an advisor(s) or successor advisor(s) to the fund, as designated in writing by the donor(s).

Role of Advisors. The Foundation welcomes the involvement and recommendations of its donors with respect to distributions from advised funds, but such recommendations are advisory only and are in no way binding upon the Foundation. In evaluating recommendations for distributions from advised funds, the Foundation staff investigates all prospective grant recipients to ensure that they are organized and operated for charitable purposes within the meaning of 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; reviews the recommended grantee’s financial and program information; and evaluates the advice of donors against the standards and criteria set forth by the Foundation to ensure that such advice is consistent with specific charitable needs identified by the Foundation as deserving of support. In all cases of two or more advisors, the advisors shall appoint a chairperson and all communications to and from the Three Rivers Community Foundation will be through the chairperson. In any case where multiple advisors make conflicting recommendations regarding distributions from the fund that cannot be promptly resolved, the Foundation may independently initiate distributions from the fund. In addition, if the advisor(s) fails to make a standing distribution recommendation, or fails to make any distribution recommendations for two consecutive years, the Foundation will contact the advisor(s) to discuss this situation.

Appointment of Additional Advisors. All requests to appoint additional advisors and successor advisors to an advised fund must be communicated to the Foundation in writing by the donor(s) establishing the fund. If upon the death, resignation, or incapacity of an advised fund’s donor(s), the Foundation has not received in writing the names of an additional advisor(s) or successor advisor(s) to the fund, the Foundation will use the fund’s balance to support the Three Rivers Community Fund to address the most pressing needs in the community. Donor advised funds established by corporations and nonprofit organizations, rather than by individuals, are often advised by an appointed committee with a process for selecting new members. Any changes in advisors to the fund must be made in writing by an officer or authorized representative of the corporation or nonprofit organization that established the fund.

Inactive Funds. In order to carry out its policy of consistently distributing charitable dollars to the community, the Foundation will review periodically the grantmaking activity of every advised fund. If a fund has failed to make distributions commensurate in size with the Foundation’s spending policy over a two-year period, the Foundation will contact the advisor(s) to discuss this situation. At that time, the advisor(s) will be given the following options:

- Recommend that the balance of the fund be granted to one or more 501(c)(3) public charities of their choice.

- Recommend that the balance of the fund be used to support the Three Rivers Community Fund, where funds will be distributed by the Foundation to meet the most pressing needs of the community. The advisor may also indicate an area of interest, which can also be benefited through the Three Rivers Community Fund.
- Provide a plan for funding a specific charitable project that requires an accumulation of resources for more than a two-year period. In the event that the advisor(s) cannot be located or is unresponsive, the balance of the fund will be used to support the Foundation's Three Rivers Community Fund.
