		Name: Period:
Directions:	2. 3.	them directly to the right of each line. (3) Find and circle 2 examples of hyperbole . Identify which poem uses personification appropriate lines. (4 points) Draw a square around 1 metaphor and 1 s	(2 points)
The Fisher- Ly	ıle (Glazier
He met the slic Of Four Mile I And liked the His bare feet li	ding Bro log iked	mornings in June, g, whispery sound ok, and liked the tune, road, morning-hushed; d the dew-soaked ground. e was headed for home,
Having tried h The heat and n But his bones	is la nois wer	ast hole for luck; e of the day had come, re cool with the brookside shade, the whirlpool's silvery suck.
(untitled) - And	ony	mous
A foot is as a v stomp, step A nose is like that you can A mouth is a f which make Your eyes are burning wit Your mind is a	you wall you wall you had a climbal wall wall wall wall wall wall wall w	a to put things in king racket ip, jump in. tallest mound imb and then slide down as laugh and never frown a million fires great desire
Fog – Carl Sa	ndb	nurg
The fog comes on little cat fee		-
It sits looking over harbor an on silent haund and then move	che	S	