ELITE ALL-AMERICAN CAMP

June 10–12 | AGES 15–18

Come join us for the time of your life at North Carolina's Women's Basketball Elite All-American Camp. The Elite All-American Camp is for the advanced, highly skilled, serious-minded, very intense high school player. This camp will help to prepare the top player for the college level game. Prior experience as a varsity starter is strongly recommended but not required.

Each camper is entitled to the following: Carolina blue and white basketball, Carolina style practice uniform, Elite Camp tee shirt, individual picture in the legendary Dean E. Smith Center, instruction by current and former Tar Heel basketball players and play in the legendary Carmichael Auditorium. We would like to help you take your game to the next level. Spaces are limited! Reserve your spot today.

SHOOTING CAMP

JUNE 25–26 | AGES 8–18

Each camper will receive a North Carolina blue and white Lady Tar Heel basketball and a camp tee shirt. Each camper will be taught fundamental systematic approach to shooting, a step-by-step shooting progression, shooting drills and shot selection – everything you need to improve your shot. This camp has been highly praised for its success in improving player's shooting percentages.

POSITION CAMP

JUNE 25–26 | AGES 8–18

Special feature: Each camper will receive a NC Blue & White Tar Heel Basketball and a camp tee shirt. Players will receive individual instruction on their Skill Development. Post Players will work on playing with their back to the basket, posting and scoring in the paint, being a good offensive rebounder, rebounding defensively, block-outs, starting the fast break outlet pass, using screens, use of the bank shot and many other aspects of inside play. Guards or perimeter players will work on how to get open, footwork triple-threat position, one-on-one moves, ball handling and passing skills, reading screens and shooting the three-point shot.

INDIVIDUAL CAMP

JUNE 26–29 | JULY 3–6 | AGES 8–18

In addition to the coaches of the Tar Heels, the camp staff will consist of members of the University of North Carolina women's basketball team, former collegiate players, pro players, and current college, high school, and junior high school coaches. The camper-to-counselor coach ratio will be approximately 6 to 1. Each camper will receive individual attention as well as small group instruction in order to improve her basketball skills. Without a doubt, the best camp staff in America.

Special Feature: Each camper will receive a North Carolina blue and white Lady Tar Heel basketball, a camp tee shirt, and an individual picture with Coach Hatchell. This camp will be divided into 6 or more age and ability groups for instruction and competition. Emphasis will be placed on fundamentals, individual defense, individual offense, and shooting techniques. Each camper will have the learning opportunity to improve her skills and develop an increased enjoyment for the game of basketball. Awards will be given in each age group for Hot Shot Champion, Free Throw Champion, and One-on-One Champion. Awards will be given on each team for best offensive player, best defensive player, most improved player and best camper. Campers will be transported to and from the gyms by buses. In addition to coaches, counselors, and the camp administrator residing in the dorm with campers, 24-hour security will be provided by Granville Towers.

CAROLINA'S FINEST TEAM CAMP – TEAMS ONLY

June 30–July 3 | July 7–10 | July 11–14

Each team MUST PROVIDE THEIR OWN TRANSPORTATION to and from the airport as well as the gyms!

Special Feature: Each camper will be given a North Carolina tee shirt. Each team will be given a North Carolina blue and white Lady Tar Heel basketball. Each team will play at least nine games against teams of similar ability. Teams will be divided into leagues by coaches choice or by competition level. Awards will be given in each league for best defensive team, best offensive team, best rebounding team, best shooting team and sportsmanship award. Games will be officiated by certified officials. Seminars will be held on study skills, time management, conditioning, strength training, leadership, team building and nutrition. Clinics will be held throughout Team Camp for players and coaches in facilities like Woollen and Fetzer gymnasiums. One coach attends at no charge (minimum of 8 players) and will be responsible for supervising their team. Teams will play in the Dean E. Smith Center and Carmichael Auditorium (where Michael Jordan played). What better way to get your team ready for the upcoming season! Each team must reserve a slot by sending in the reservation form and a nonrefundable $50.00 reservation fee per team. Each team must have at least 8 players.

MEMBER OF THE Women's Basketball 2004 Hall of Fame

North Carolina Head Coach Sylvia Hatchell is one of the most respected and successful women's coaches in the country. She holds an all-time record of 654 wins.

Under her direction, the Tar Heel program won:

NCAA National Championship
1994

ACC Championships
1988 • 1997
1995 • 1994

NAIA National Championship
1986

SWEET SIXTEENS
2002 • 2000 • 1999
1998 • 1997 • 1995
1994 • 1993

Elite Eight
1988 • 1994

AIAW National Championship
1982

The Tar Heels have produced twelve professional players, four All-Americans, four Atlantic Coast Conference rookies of the year, and back-to-back 30-win seasons.

In fact, with a 30–5 record in 1995, Hatchell became the first UNC basketball coach, men's or women's, to post back-to-back 30-win seasons. And in 1994, Hatchell was named the National Coach of the Year by USA Today and College Sports Magazine.

Sylvia Hatchell is in her 19th year as Carolina's coach and her 30th year as a head coach. She has led the team to an average of 21.2 wins per year over the past 18 seasons and to 24 wins per year over the past six.

Hatchell led Francis Marion to the NAIA national championship in 1986 and to an AIAW title in 1982. Although the Tar Heels success has been building since Hatchell took over the reins, it was the landmark 1994 season that saw the Tar Heels go 14–2 in the ACC regular season and win Hatchell's first ACC title plus Carolina's first NCAA national title. The Tar Heels set a school record for wins with 33, and their 33–2 overall record was the best in college basketball. Carolina finished the season ranked fourth in the AP poll and first by USA Today. Prior to taking over the Tar Heel program, Hatchell guided Francis Marion College to a 273–80 mark over 11 seasons. She coached the 1986 Lady Patriots to a remarkable 36–2 record and a National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics national championship. Her 1982 team also won a national championship in the AIAW small college division, making Hatchell the only coach known to have won national titles in NCAA, NAIA, and AIAW competition.

Actively involved in shaping modern women's basketball, Hatchell is a past president of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association. Hatchell has previously been a member of the WBCA Board of Directors and a member of USA Basketball Women's Games Committee. A native of Gastonia, N.C., Hatchell graduated cum laude from Carson-Newman College. In March 1994, she was honored as the Carson-Newman Distinguished Alumnus-of-the-Year.

In 1975, Hatchell received her MS degree from the University of Tennessee.

Her husband, Sammy Hatchell, is currently the head boy's basketball coach at Cresset Christian Academy in Durham, N.C. The couple's son, Van, is 16 years old and in the tenth grade at Cresset Christian Academy. Sammy and Van enjoy working at the Lady TarHeels basketball camp every summer.

“ Thanks for a great basketball camp! Our team had the best experience we could hope for! Everyone was friendly and helpful, and the competition was great! Please let your staff, especially Jim, know how much we appreciated their help with our injured players. They were very knowledgeable, and great with a first for our program, so thanks for working so hard to give our team and awesome experience! Go Tarheels!

— Julie Slusher, Grass Lake H.S., Grass Lake, MI

“ I have brought my girls to other camps in the past and we have had good experiences; however, team camp at UNC is the best. The biggest factor is the people. It is the people that keep me coming back. They almost make you feel like family. Sylvia, Sammy, Deneene and staff really care...

— John C. Lanata

“ The experience our young ladies had was the thrill of a lifetime, meeting Coach Hatchell and her team, and playing in the Carmichael and Smith Centers were a dream come true. The girls made many friends that they still remain in touch with. Traveling from Canada was well worth the trip, and we'll be back when the girls are varsity level.

—Kevin Fitzpatrick, Hamilton Wildcats, Hamilton, Ontario Canada

“ I first took my team to UNC team camp in 1991 and we have now been 13 years in a row. The facilities are great and the girls and coaches are treated well. It is a great experience and valuable preparation for the opening season.
