

Drum Corps International FINALS!

The Drum Corps International World Championships mark a week-long celebration of the “very best” in the world of marching music. Serving as the culmination of DCI’s 41st anniversary season will be the World Championship Finals. The top 12 corps as determined by the previous days Prelims and Semifinals competitions will vie for top honors and the chance to be called World Champion during this concluding event of the 2013 Drum Corps International Tour.
