Earn CE's and Help a Worthy Cause

On Saturday, February 13, 2016 the GSLDHA is once again sponsoring a continuing education program to benefit the Charles Clifford Endowment Fund. This annual CE event benefits the fund which helps dental hygiene students at Forest Park Community College by providing scholarship money. Response from the dental hygiene community has always been generous, so please consider attending, and supporting this very worthy cause. This year we are proud to present:

The Changing Face of Dental Hygiene Practice: Expert Clinician, Skilled Motivator and Preventive Specialist

Saturday, February 13, 2016

8:00 a.m.- Noon

Location: Kirkwood Community Center
111 S. Geyer Rd.
Kirkwood MO 63122

(Please note: This is a change from our usual location!)

Registration and continental breakfast begin at 7:30 A.M.

Presented by:

Lillian J. Caperila, R.D.H., B.S.D.H., M.Ed.

Course Description: As we observe the reorganization of healthcare delivery throughout the world, the dental hygienist is now evolving into a key healthcare specialist. This program paves a new direction in specialized roles to include advanced clinicians, knowledgeable and effective motivators combined with recognizing that prevention is our only tool to optimal oral and general health.

Each module of this course will focus on a changing dynamic in hygiene therapy introducing the latest technologies offered in today's prevention strategies. Patients today are more informed of their options as they live longer and fuller lives. The participants will learn and share their ideas in exploring the skills necessary to become the dental hygienist of the next decade.
