VEHICLE REPOSSESSION QUESTIONNAIRE

If your car or truck was repossessed and sold without proper notice, you may be entitled to compensation. The law requires a lender to give a full and accurate description of a consumer's legal rights after a repossession. If the lender doesn't - and many do not - the consumer may be able to wipe out any deficiency and recover substantial money damages. If you would like our law firm to possibly to represent you, please (1) carefully read this section,(2) when you are finished answering all the questions, please click the "SUBMIT" button on the last page and the Questionnaire will automatically be e-mailed to our office, or (3) please click the "PRINT" button on the last page and the Questionnaire will be printed. After printing, you may fax or mail the completed Questionnaire back to our office at the address listed above.

By law, your communications with us during the evaluation process are regarded as privileged and confidential and will be treated by us accordingly. We will respond to your inquiry as promptly as possible. There is no charge or obligation for our review of your case.
