John's Jottings

First off, thank you to all for your support with your presence, cards and donations. All of the organizations Deb and I are a part of have been there with us.

The 2016 global exchange committee met in January and has completed a rough draft and submitted it to the general committee. Thank you Jan et al for taking this on.

Do to my inattention the two Harrisburg exchanges are not doing as well. We have 4 signed up for going to Harrisburg in May. I did receive two inquiries from Denver FF members but no applications yet. The ED in Harrisburg is ok with a small attendance but would like to see more if possible. The incoming exchange in September has little to no planning done. I will ask for committee member volunteers at our meeting this Monday.

We have a speaker for the February meeting so please come to learn more about Myanmar. See you February 9 at Casey's Club.

In Friendship,

John

Please join us Monday at our new meeting location,

Meeting Minutes for JANUARY 12

VICE-PRESIDENT TIM BOLIN called the meeting to order after a scrumptious pot-luck dinner.

Tim introduced participants in the October 7-14 October Exchange to Charleston, WV.

Tim described the warm welcome he and Julie received at the home of Mike and Judy, who had an outstanding wine collection. Much time was spent in discussion and relaxation. Tim also mentioned meeting the granddaughter of their hosts who gradually came to know the house full of teachers. (Ron Poelma also stayed with Mike and Judy.) Tim also mentioned the hilly area.

Beverly Swistowicz reported on her first FF trip as an ambassador for she had hosted before during the Ashville, NC Exchange August 18-25. Her new experience was unlike other travel experiences; the home stay was like that of an exchange student, hanging out, learning, and coming to know her host who had taken a week off from her job as a ER Nurse in order to learn about Wyoming with Bev. Bev learned about “hollers!”

Judy Eatmon’s host was also a Math Teacher and the two had a lot of common experiences. Judy’s goal during the trip was to view the fall colors and during her stay she was treated to a 6-7 hour car trip through the hills of WV. Judy told about the farewell dinner at the beautiful home of Charleston world travelers, who had more “stuff” than her husband, Bob. Judy was impressed by the amazing flowers on steep environments at the home.

Ron Poelma also described an exciting new experience and learning a new skill—falling asleep with a wine glass in his hand.

Julie Bolin talked about her exciting evening at the Emergency Room after a Zip Drive accident. Although she broke her ankle, she became a STAR cowgirl by hanging tough after the accident. Tim said that many visitors to the ER were exciting to meet their Wyoming guest.

John Kaiser described his bicycle trip where he actually got off the bike to climb a hill—new for him during the Charleston Exchange. John got to ride in a Mustang and Corvette during his Charleston stay. He also thanked those assembled for their concerns about the tragic death of his son and grandson. Our club members were all thankful to be together with Debbie and John and many of us were able to share our tears and thoughts were with our leader and wife.

Tim Bolin then continued with the club business.

Minutes were approved.

Applications for Harrisburg, PA. Exchange, May 13-20, 2015 are available online.

A Russian Exchange with RR mid-executives is still in the incubator.

Terry Udell asked for an Updated Sheet with new membership for our club binders.

John Lee asked for an Audit of the club books. Carolyn Webber and Judy Eaton volunteered.

John has arranged for the February Meeting Program about Myanmar (Burma) with Larry Claypool, Petroleum Engineer on February 9 at Casey's Club , 507 W. 28th St. at 6 pm.

Jim Webber offered a motion to make Casey's Club the permanent meeting location. Dennis Guilford seconded the motion that was unanimously approved.

Donna called on Bev to draw #26 for a $10 door prize, member not present, so February's door prize will be $20. See Your There!

Respectfully submitted,
Barbara Guilford

New Door Prizes for 2015

January's drawing was for a $10 gift card. Since the member who's number was drawn was not present, that door prize will be carried over to February and have another $10 added to it.

The February door prize will be for $20.

Peaks to Plains Global Exchange (Rocky Mountain Front Range)

..... SAVE THE DATES

September 9-12, 2016

Next year, FF of Cheyenne will join the Friendship Force Clubs of Northern Colorado, Denver and Pikes Peak in hosting a twelve day Global Exchange for, we hope, Ambassadors from around the world. We'll each showcase our unique areas of the Rocky Mountain Front Range and there will be an optional extension to Grand Junction, CO.

Kay Thomas of FFNC will be the overall exchange director and Jan Behrens will be the ED for the Cheyenne portion.

Ambassadors will spend three days and nights with each club, starting with Cheyenne. The goal is to have Ambassadors from all over the world with no more than two from any one FF club. The exchange will be advertised at the Vancouver Annual Conference where a brochure will be available, on the FF website and on websites and in newsletters of the clubs involved.

We've planned some interesting activities for the Ambassadors and will need lots of involvement from our club members such as home hosting, day hosting, mix and match dinners, milk can dinner, and transportation. Please mark the dates on your calendar and look for more information in future newsletters. We want to show our guests some real Wyoming hospitality!
