APPLE BUTTER DAY - Tuesday, Aug. 25th at 7:00 am (with rain date on Aug. 29th). People are needed to stir from 7-11:00ish and then we will need more to come and help fill the jars starting around 12 noon.

SPAGHETTI SAUCE DAY - We will be making and canning spaghetti sauce on Monday, August 31st at 8 am.

Supplies for Apple Butter needed: Sugar, Splenda®,

Supplies for spaghetti sauce needed: tomatoes, green peppers, and onions. Please call Shirley Wilkes or the church office if you have vegetables to donate.

Needed for all 3 canning days: quart and pint size canning jars (No mayo jars, please), rings and lids.

There's a Fall Festival meeting Wednesday, Aug. 12th at 7:30 pm in rm. 110 for anyone interested in helping.

Are you turning 65 in the near future? Want to learn the basics of Medicare? Come to room 106 at 6:30 pm on Thursday, August 13. Medicare 101 will help educate and differentiate Medicare information so that you may make an informed decision for your healthcare needs and understand the rules and regulations when coming in to the Medicare system. Dessert will be served. You may register on the member/visitor card; call the office at 282-0248, or at the Health and Wellness Info. Center. Enter at Door B.

BCCC sponsors an American Heritage Girls troop, a Christ-centered program for girls ages 5-18. It's motto is "Faith-Service-Fun", and the girls keep busy with service projects, badgework, spiritual development, and outdoor activities. AHG's goal is to build women of integrity through service to God, family, community, and country. Troop meetings are every 1st and 3rd Tuesday night from 6 -8 pm here at church starting September 1st. Registration night is at the church, August 18th, 6 - 7 pm, or for more info you may contact Troop Coordinator, Julie Gardner at 943-1999 or juliamom2@aol.com.
