

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The church bulletin announced, "Potluck Supper Sunday at 5 p.m. prayer and medication to follow."

They obviously meant "Meditation." In this Sunday's gospel for Pentecost, the disciples probably weren't having a potluck supper, but they surely needed prayer and meditation after the Risen Jesus suddenly appeared in their midst. There He was, even though the doors were locked, as they huddled fearfully in the upper room.

We all have our locked rooms. We invite Jesus to appear in the midst of our lives to quiet our fear. "The Summons", a popular hymn, one that we sing here in church, tells us: "Let me turn and follow you and never be the same."

Yours in Christ,
Father Dave

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Gospel: John 10:19-23

Reading I: Proverbs 8:22-31

Reading II: Romans 5:1-5

Gospel: John 16:12-15

Through Our Daily Lives

When the Spirit came upon the church on the day of Pentecost, the Christian community was endowed with different gifts so that there would be different ministries and different works. All of us have been given to drink of the one Spirit, but that Spirit is manifested in different gifts, ministries, and works.

Our church is indeed blessed with different gifts.

- We have in our own age seen the wonderful gift of enlightened leadership embodied in Pope John XXIII.
- We have seen the gift of martyrdom embodied in Archbishop Oscar Romero.
- We have seen the gift of contemplation joined with commitment to justice embodied in Thomas Merton.
- We have seen the gift of commitment to the poor embodied in Dom Helder Camara.
- We have seen the gifts of voluntary poverty and nonviolence embodied in Dorothy Day.

To each person the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good.

What matters is not the nature of the gift but that through the gift the Spirit is working to renew the face of the earth. We do not have to be heroes, like the people named above. Through our ordinary daily lives the Spirit of the Lord fills the whole world.

“The laity, dedicated to Christ and anointed by the Holy Spirit, are marvelously called and equipped to produce in themselves ever more abundant fruits of the Spirit.

For all their works, prayers, and apostolic endeavors, their ordinary married and family life, their daily labor, their mental and physical relaxation, if carried out in the Spirit, and even the hardships of life, if patiently borne—all of these become spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.”

Vatican II, Constitution on the Church (1964) 34
Gerald Darring

PRAYER FOR THE SEVEN GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Christ Jesus, before ascending into heaven, You promised to send the Holy Spirit to Your apostles and Disciples.

Grant that the same Spirit may perfect in our lives the work of Your grace and love.

Grant us the Spirit of Fear of the Lord that we may be filled with a loving reverence toward You.

the Spirit of Piety that we may find peace and fulfillment in the service of God while serving others the Spirit of Fortitude that we may bear our cross with You and, with courage, overcome the obstacles that interfere with our salvation the Spirit of Knowledge that we may know You and know ourselves and grow in holiness the Spirit of Understanding to enlighten our minds with the light of Your truth.

the Spirit of Counsel that we may choose the surest way of doing Your will, seeking first the Kingdom.

Grant us the Spirit of Wisdom that we may aspire to the things that last forever.

Teach us to be Your faithful disciples and animate us in every way with Your Spirit.

Amen.

PRAYER FOR OUR TROOPS AROUND THE WORLD

"Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. I ask this in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Savior."

FROM OUR PARISH NURSE

... Janet Daubert

Good news about statin drugs: They may decrease the risk of cataracts. In a large Israeli study recently in the Annals of Epidemiology, people age 45 to 75 who were taking statins to improve their cholesterol levels had a nearly 40% lower risk of cataracts compared to non-users; the risk was not reduced in people over 75.

Bad news about statins: They may slightly increase the risk of type 2 diabetes. A recent analysis in the Lancet, which pooled data from 13 large clinical trials, found that statin users had a 9% higher risk of developing diabetes over a four-year period, and the risk increased with age. An accompanying editorial pointed out that the cardiovascular benefits of statins far outweigh this small increased risk, but recommended that doctors monitor blood sugar in older statin users.
