

Activity 29.2 Matching Acts and Agencies

Directions: Match the items in Column A with the lettered items in Column B by placing the correct letter on the blank provided.

Column A

- _____ 1. Act requiring that foods be safe, pure, and wholesome.
- _____ 2. An act that requires product labels to contain accurate names, quantities, and weights.
- _____ 3. Act that established national safety standards for automobiles and tires.
- _____ 4. Law that requires that warning labels appear on all household products that are potentially dangerous to the consumer.
- _____ 5. Effective since 1972, this act requires that clothing and fabrics be permanently labeled.
- _____ 6. An act protecting the privacy and use of student records.
- _____ 7. An act requiring drug manufacturers to file notices of new drugs with the FDA.
- _____ 8. A 1953 act that set flammability standards for clothing, children's sleepwear, carpets, rugs, and mattresses.
- _____ 9. The agency of the Department of Agriculture that inspects food to ensure wholesomeness and truthful labeling.
- _____ 10. Through the Department of Commerce, this agency sets measurement, product, and safety standards.
- _____ 11. The agency charged with enforcing laws preventing distribution of mislabeled foods, drugs, cosmetics, and medical devices.
- _____ 12. The agency that regulates radio and television broadcasting.
- _____ 13. The agency concerned with protecting consumers from unfair methods of competition.
- _____ 14. A government agency whose main purpose is to protect investors.
- _____ 15. A state and local, non-governmental agency that gathers information about local businesses.
- _____ 16. An act that bans the sale of toys and children's articles containing hazardous substances.
- _____ 17. An act protecting the privacy and use of medical records.

Column B

- a. Agricultural Marketing Service
- b. Permanent Care Labeling Rule of 1972
- c. Child Protection and Toy Safety Act of 1966
- d. Better Business Bureau
- e. Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act of 1938
- f. Federal Trade Commission
- g. Kefauver-Harris Drug Amendment of 1962
- h. Food and Drug Administration
- i. National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966
- j. National Institute of Standards and Technology
- k. FERPA
 1. Fair Packaging and Labeling Act of 1966
- m. Hazardous Substances Labeling Act of 1960
- n. Flammable Fabrics Act of 1953
- o. Securities and Exchange Commission
- p. Federal Communications Commission
- q. HIPAA