Dear Mr Ismail,

Thank you for your letter.

The daily corrections and clarifications column is (and has been accepted by Ipso as) the established place for all corrections and clarifications to appear in The Times, and we believe that prompt publication there of the wording to which you refer met our obligations under clause 1 of the Editors' Code. If you disagree and wish to pursue your complaint through the regulator, we will be happy to cooperate with them as required.

Yours sincerely,

Rose Wild.
