LIMITATION ON SHIPMENT OF WINES

Bidders are reminded of the limitations and restrictions imposed by various states and countries regarding the importation of wines which have been purchased at auction in one state and shipped into another state or country. Various jurisdictions both within and outside the United States may prohibit the importation, or limit the quantity of wines, that may be shipped into their jurisdictions. In addition, various jurisdictions may require the purchaser, consignor, shipper or other entity to possess certain licenses or permits before shipping wines. It is the sole responsibility of the purchaser to determine before bidding at auction whether wines can legally be shipped into any jurisdiction and the legal obligation or responsibility for obtaining any required permits or licenses on behalf of the purchaser prior to shipment and Columbus Wines & Spirits and Christie's make no representation as to the legal rights of any purchaser to ship wines to or from any jurisdiction. A delay in obtaining required permits or licenses shall not justify a rescission of any sale of delay in making payment in full for the purchase.
