Mission

The Canadian Catholic Organization for DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE, a democratic movement for international solidarity, supports partners in the Global South in the pursuit of alternatives to unjust social, political and economic structures. It educates the Canadian population about the causes of impoverishment of peoples and mobilizes actions for change. In the struggle for human dignity, DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE associates with social change groups in the North and South. It supports women in their search for social and economic justice. DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE, the official development organization of the Canadian Catholic Church, is inspired by the values of the Gospel, particularly “the preferential option for the poor.”

Membership

Development and Peace members receive information on our programs and activities from the animation staff attached to their region. They also receive an electronic newsletter. The Development and Peace Website www.devp.org, updated regularly, offers a great deal of information about our partners, our programs in the Global South, our public campaigns and our public stands.

Membership means:

- being part of an international movement for social justice
- adding your voice to those who work for justice and peace
- you are invited to participate in local education and fundraising activities
- you can vote at regional assemblies
