V. INITIAL PRIORITY LIST

Please rank the following items (1-10) in order of their importance to you (at this moment in time) in choosing a college. It may be difficult to choose in some cases, but even if you are unsure about a couple of these, please do your best to rank them anyway. Please rank these aspects of the college experience according to YOUR priorities; do not take others' opinions into consideration – while this decision may affect many people around you, you are the one who is going to spend four years at the college you choose.

This list may change several times as you begin to narrow your choices and determine your priorities for college, but is, nevertheless, a valuable starting point for our College Bound staff to get to know you better.
