CUSTOMER CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS

The following customer contract requirements apply to this contract to the extent indicated below. If this contract is for the procurement of commercial items under a Government prime contract, as defined in FAR Part 2.101, see Section 3 below.

1. FAR Clauses. The following contract clauses are incorporated by reference from the Federal Acquisition Regulation and apply to the extent indicated. In all of the following clauses, "Contractor" and "Offeror" mean Seller.

52.203-6 Restrictions on Subcontractor Sales to the Government (Sep 2006). This clause applies only if this contract exceeds $100,000.

52.203-7 Anti-Kickback Procedures (excluding subparagraph (c)(1)) (Jul 1995) . Buyer may withhold from sums owed Seller the amount of any kickback paid by Seller or its subcontractors at any tier if (a) the Contracting Officer so directs, or (b) the Contracting Officer has offset the amount of such kickback against money owed Buyer under the prime contract. This clause applies only if this contract exceeds $100,000.

52.203-8 Cancellation, Rescission, and Recovery of Funds for Illegal or Improper Activity (Jan 1997) . This clause applies to this contract if the Seller, its employees, officers, directors or agents participated personally and substantially in any part of the preparation of a proposal for this contract. The Seller shall indemnify Buyer for any and all losses suffered by the Buyer due to violations of the Act (as set forth in this clause) by Seller or its subcontractors at any tier.

52.203-10 Price or Fee Adjustment for Illegal or Improper Activity (Jan 1997) . This clause applies only if this contract exceeds $100,000. If the Government reduces Buyer's price or fee for violations of the Act by Seller or its subcontractors at any tier, Buyer may withhold from sums owed Seller the amount of the reduction.

52.203-12 Limitation on Payments to Influence Certain Federal Transactions (Sep 2007) . This clause applies only if this contract exceeds $100,000. Paragraph (g)(2) is modified to read as follows: "(g)(2) Seller will promptly submit any disclosure required (with written notice to Boeing) directly to the PCO for the prime contract. Boeing will identify the cognizant Government

PCO at Seller's request. Each subcontractor certification will be retained in the subcontract file of the awarding contractor."

52.203-13 Contractor Code of Business Ethics and Conduct (Dec 2007) . This clause applies only if this contract is in excess of $5,000,000, has a period of performance of more than 120 days, and is not for a commercial item or performed entirely outside the United States. For the purposes of this clause, the United States is defined as the 50 states, the District of Columbia, and outlying areas.

A. Special Instructions For Iraq/Afghanistan Area of Operations

AI 25.3 COMPLIANCE W/LAWS

Compliance with Laws and Regulations (5 Nov 07). The Contractor shall comply with, and shall ensure that its personnel and its subcontractors and subcontractor personnel at all tiers obey all existing and future U.S. and Host Nation laws, Federal or DoD regulations, and Central Command orders and directives applicable to personnel in Iraq and Afghanistan, including, but not limited to, USCENTCOM, Multi-National Force and Multi-National Corps fragmentary orders, instructions and directives.

Contractor employees performing in the USCENTCOM Area of Operations are under the jurisdiction of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ). Under the UCMJ, U.S. commanders may discipline contractor employees for criminal offenses. Contractors shall advise the Contracting Officer if they suspect an employee has committed an offense. Contractors shall not permit an employee suspected of a serious offense or violating the Rules for the Use of Force to depart Iraq or Afghanistan without approval from the senior U.S. commander in the country.

(End)

AI 22.1 HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Prohibition Against Human Trafficking, Inhumane Living Conditions, and Withholding of Employee Passports (5 Nov 07): All contractors (“contractors” herein below includes subcontractors at all tiers) are reminded of the prohibition contained in Title 18, United States Code, Section 1592, against knowingly destroying, concealing, removing, confiscating, or possessing any actual or purported passport or other immigration document, or any other actual or purported government identification document, of another person, to prevent or restrict or to attempt to prevent or restrict, without lawful authority, the person’s liberty to move or travel, in order to maintain the labor or services of that person, when the person is or has been a victim of a severe form of trafficking in persons.

Contractors are also required to comply with the following provisions:

- 1) Contractors shall only hold employee passports and other identification documents discussed above for the shortest period of time reasonable for administrative processing purposes.
- 2) Contractors shall provide all employees with a signed copy of their employment contract, in English as well as the employee’s native language that defines the terms of their employment/compensation.
- 3) Contractors shall not utilize unlicensed recruiting firms, or firms that charge illegal recruiting fees.
- 4) Contractors shall be required to provide adequate living conditions (sanitation, health, safety, living space) for their employees. Fifty square feet (50 sf) is the minimum acceptable square footage of personal living space per employee. Upon contractor’s written request, contracting officers may grant a waiver in writing in cases where the existing square footage is within 20% of the minimum, and the overall conditions are determined by the contracting officer to be acceptable. A copy of the waiver approval shall be maintained at the respective life support area.
- 5) Contractors shall incorporate checks of life support areas to ensure compliance with the requirements of this Trafficking in Persons Prohibition into their Quality Control program, which will be reviewed within the Government’s Quality Assurance process.
- 6) Contractors shall comply with international laws regarding transit/exit/entry procedures, and the requirements for work visas. Contractors shall follow all Host Country entry and exit requirements.

Contractors have an affirmative duty to advise the Contracting Officer if they learn of their employees violating the human trafficking and inhumane living conditions provisions contained herein. Contractors are advised that contracting officers and/or their representatives will conduct random checks to ensure contractors and subcontractors at all tiers are adhering to the law on human trafficking, humane living conditions and withholding of passports.

The contractor agrees to incorporate the substance of this clause, including this paragraph, in all subcontracts under his contract.

When DFARS 252.225-7040 is included, this mandatory language supplements paragraph (c) (2):

Fitness for Duty and Limits on Medical / Dental Care in Iraq and Afghanistan (5 Nov 07): The contractor shall perform the requirements of this contract notwithstanding the fitness for duty of deployed employees, the provisions for care offered under this section, and redeployment of individuals determined to be unfit. The contractor bears the responsibility for ensuring all employees are aware of the conditions and medical treatment available at the performance. The contractor shall include this information and requirement in all subcontracts with performance in the theater of operations.

The contractor shall not deploy an individual with any of the following conditions unless approved by the appropriate CENTCOM Service Component (ie. ARCENT, CENTAF, etc.) Surgeon: Conditions which prevent the wear of personal protective equipment, including protective mask, ballistic helmet, body armor, and chemical/biological protective garments; conditions which prohibit required theater immunizations or medications; conditions or current medical treatment or medications that contraindicate or preclude the use of chemical and biological protectives and antidotes; diabetes mellitus, Type I or II, on pharmacological therapy; symptomatic coronary artery disease, or with myocardial infarction within one year prior to deployment, or within six months of coronary artery bypass graft, coronary artery angioplasty, or stenting; morbid obesity (BMI \geq 40); dysrhythmias or arrhythmias, either symptomatic or requiring medical or electrophysiologic control; uncontrolled hypertension, current heart failure, or automatic implantable defibrillator; therapeutic anticoagulation; malignancy, newly diagnosed or under current treatment, or recently diagnosed/treated and requiring frequent subspecialist surveillance, examination, and/or laboratory testing; dental or oral conditions requiring or likely to require urgent dental care within six months' time, active orthodontic care, conditions requiring prosthodontic care, conditions with immediate restorative dentistry needs, conditions with a current requirement for oral-maxillofacial surgery; new onset (< 1 year) seizure disorder, or seizure within one year prior to deployment; history of heat stroke; Meniere's Disease or other vertiginous/motion sickness disorder, unless well controlled on medications available in theater; recurrent syncope, ataxias, new diagnosis (< 1 year) of mood disorder, thought disorder, anxiety, somatoform, or dissociative disorder, or personality disorder with mood or thought manifestations; unrepaired hernia; tracheostomy or aphonia; renalithiasis, current; active tuberculosis; pregnancy; unclosed surgical defect, such as external fixator placement; requirement for medical devices using AC power; HIV antibody positivity; psychotic and bipolar disorders. (Reference: Mod 8 to USCENTCOM Individual Protection and Individual/Unit Deployment Policy, PPG-Tab A: Amplification of the Minimal Standards of Fitness for Deployment to the CENTCOM AOR).

In accordance with military directives (DoDI 3020.41, DoDI 6000.11, CFC FRAGO 09-1038, DoD PGI 225.74), resuscitative care, stabilization, hospitalization at Level III (emergency) military treatment facilities and assistance with patient movement in emergencies where loss of life, limb or eyesight could occur will be provided. Hospitalization will be limited to emergency stabilization and short-term medical treatment with an emphasis on return to duty or placement in the patient movement system. Subject to availability at the time of need, a medical treatment facility may provide reimbursable treatment for emergency medical or dental care such as broken bones, lacerations, broken teeth or lost fillings.

Routine and primary medical care is not authorized. Pharmaceutical services are not authorized for routine or known prescription drug needs of the individual. Routine dental care, examinations and cleanings are not authorized.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the contract, the contractor shall be liable for any and all medically-related services or transportation rendered. In accordance with OUSD(C) Memorandum dated January 4, 2007, the following reimbursement rates will be charged for services at all DoD deployed medical facilities. These rates are in effect until changed by DoD direction.

Inpatient daily rate: $1,918.00. Date of discharge is not billed unless the patient is admitted to the hospital and discharged the same day.

Outpatient visit rate: $184.00. This includes diagnostic imaging, laboratory/pathology, and pharmacy provided at the medical facility.

B. H.9. Organizational Conflict Of Interest

To prevent conflicting roles, which may bias the contractor's quotes, judgment or objectivity, and to preclude the contractor from obtaining unfair competitive advantage in concurrent or future acquisitions, the contractor shall be restricted as set forth in subparagraphs below.

The Contractor warrants and represents to the best of its knowledge and belief that it does not presently have any organizational conflict of interest which would diminish its capacity to give impartial, technically sound and objective assistance or would result in a biased work product or might result in an unfair competitive advantage except that which flows from the normal benefit or performance of this contract.

Whenever, in the performance of this contract, the Contractor provides recommendations or advice related to the development of specifications, work statements, data or other information for hardware/software items, the Contractor will not enter into any contract either as a prime or subcontractor to furnish said items or components thereof during the life of this contract or through the initial production contract whichever is longer.

Whenever, in the performance of this contract, the Contractor provides recommendations or advice related to the development of specifications, work statements, data, or other information for hardware/software items, the Contractor will not enter into any contract with the item supplier to provide any support, analysis or consulting services. Whenever, in the performance of this contract, the Contractor furnishes items or components or provides services on items or components, the Contractor will not enter into any contract either as a prime or subcontractor to provide recommendations or advice related to the development of specifications, work statements, data or other information for those items or components. These prohibitions will apply during the life of the contract through completion of the final task order.

The Contractor may be required to perform technical evaluation of contractor offers and/or products as well as advisory and assistance services relative to the same. In these instances, the Contractor will not evaluate or advise the Government concerning its own products or activities. When required to evaluate other Contractor offers and/or products or provide advisory and assistance services to the same, the Contractor will preserve its objectivity and protect the Government interests.

During the course of this contract, use of other company's quote-proprietary data shall be necessary for contract performance. Access to this proprietary data shall be accomplished either directly from the other company or, if available, from the Special Operations Support Activity. The Contractor shall enter into a written agreement with each of said other companies in which the Contractor:

- _ Obtains the permission to use the other companies' quote proprietary data, whether obtained directly from the other company or from USSOCOM, in the performance of this contract,
- _ Agrees to protect the proprietary data from unauthorized use or disclosure for as long as it remains proprietary; and,
- _ Agrees to refrain from using the proprietary data for any purpose other than in the performance of this contract.

The Contractor further agrees:

- _ To adopt operating procedures and physical security measures designed to protect the proprietary data from disclosure or release to authorized third parties;
- _ To indemnify the Government, its agents and employees from all liability arising out of, or in any way related to, the misuse or unauthorized disclosure by the Contractor, its employees or agents of any proprietary data it received;
- _ To hold the Government, its agents and employees, harmless against any claim or liability, including attorney fees, costs and expenses, arising out of the misuse of unauthorized disclosure of any proprietary data supplied to the Contractor;
- _ To provide a copy of their agreements with the other companies to the Contracting Officer prior to obtaining access to the proprietary data; and;
- _ To provide, on request from the Contracting Officer, evidence of the steps taken to protect against unauthorized use or disclosure of the proprietary data.

Whenever a Contractor must obtain proprietary technical data or computer software (including limited rights or government purpose license rights technical data and restricted rights computer software) from the Government to perform under a task order under this contract, the Contractor will be required to furnish a copy of its proprietary technical data or computer software exchange agreement with the owner of the data as a necessary condition to receiving said proprietary technical data or computer software from the Government.

If the Contracting Officer finds that said written agreement or procedures taken are not adequate, the Government has the right to withhold access to the proprietary data. Additionally, if the Contracting Officer finds that a Contractor employee, agent, or subcontractor made unauthorized use or disclosure of any of said proprietary data, the Government has the right to bar that employee, agent, or subcontractor from having further access to said proprietary data from the Contractor at no liability to the Government.

The provisions of this clause are fully applicable to all subcontractors utilized by the Contractor and that this clause shall be included in all subcontracts the Contractor enters into to support, either directly or indirectly, this contract.

No form of business insulation quote technique to avoid, evade or substitute for the restrictions set out herein shall be permitted except in the absolute discretion of the Government the exercise of which shall not be subject to the Disputes Clause.

In the event the Contractor breaches or violates any of the warranties, convenience, restrictions, disclosures or nondisclosure under this provision, the Government may terminate this contract for default and pursue any other remedies as provided by law. Additionally, it is agreed that the prohibitions contained herein against competing for or performing as a prime contractor, subcontractor or as a consultant to a prime or subcontractor to provide services, hardware or software, shall apply to all programs managed or overseen by SOFSA or its subordinate elements with respect to which services may be ordered under this contract. The SOFSA wide exclusion shall cease upon expiration of the final ordering period, or the end of all delivery order performance periods, whichever is later, of this contract.

The Head of the Contracting Activity may at his/her sole discretion, grant individual waivers to the SOFSA-wide exclusion on a case-by-case basis. Such waivers shall be binding. However, the Contractor shall have no right to such waivers, and the failure to grant a waiver shall not be grounds for protest against any solicitation or acquisition as to which the waiver was denied, nor shall the refusal to grant a waiver be subject to appeal under the Disputes Clause of this contract.

During the course of this contract there is a potential for changes in relationships that may occur and accordingly, the Contractor agrees to adjust and take any and all measures deemed necessary to comply with this clause and FAR 9.5. The Contractor agrees to immediately notify the Contracting Officer of changes in relationships and a description of the action the Contractor has taken or proposes to take to avoid, eliminate or neutralize the conflicts of interest.

C. 5652.231-9001 Allowable Travel Costs (2005)

(a) Pursuant to Public Law 99-234, reasonable and allowable Contractor costs for transportation associated with the performance of this contract may be reimbursed upon mileage, rates, actual costs, or a combination thereof, lodging, meals and incidental expenses may be based upon per diem, actual expense, or a combination therefore, provided that the method used results in a reasonable charge. The cost above shall be determined reasonable and allowable to the extent that they do not exceed, on a daily basis, the maximum per diem rate in effect at the time of travel as set forth in:

(1) Federal Travel Regulations, Volume 2, DoD Civilian Personnel, Appendix A, prescribed by the Department of Defense, for travel in Alaska, Hawaii, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the territories and possessions of the United States, available on a subscription basis from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington DC 20402, Stock No. 906-010-000000-1; or at http://www.gsa.gov/Portal/gsa/ep/contentView.do?P=MTT&contentId=13265&contentType=GSA_BASIC in electronic format.

(2) Standardized Regulations (Government Civilians, Foreign Areas), Section 925, "Maximum Travel Per Diem Allowance for Foreign Areas," prescribed by the Department of State, for travel in areas not covered in (a)(1) of this clause, available on a subscription basis from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington DC 20402, Stock No. 744-008-000000-0; or at <http://www.state.gov/m/a/als/prdm/2002/9892.htm> in electronic format

(b) Cited Federal Regulations are not incorporated in their entirety. Only sections defining lodging, meals and incidental expenses and those sections dealing with special or unusual situations and setting forth maximum per diem rates are incorporated herein.

D. 5652.239-9000 Privacy or Security Safeguards. (2000)

(a) The details of any privacy or security safeguards that may be revealed to the contractor by the Government in the course of performance under this contract shall not be published or disclosed in any manner without the Contracting Officer's express written consent.

(b) The Government shall be afforded full, free, and uninhibited access to all facilities, installations, technical capabilities, operations, documentation, records, and data bases for the purpose of carrying out a program of inspection to ensure continued efficacy and efficiency of safeguards against threats and hazards to data security, integrity, and confidentiality.

(c) If either the Government or the contractor discovers new or unanticipated threats or hazards, or if existing safeguards have ceased to function, then a mutual agreement shall then be reached on the changes or corrections to existing safeguards or institution of new safeguards, with final determination of appropriateness to be determined by the Government. The Government's liability is limited to an equitable adjustment of cost for such changes or corrections, unless the ineffectiveness of existing safeguards is due to the fault of the contractor in which case the Government is not liable for any equitable adjustment.

(d) The Government shall not be liable for claims of loss of business, damage to reputation, or damages of any other kind arising from the discovery of new or unanticipated threats or hazards, or any public or private disclosure thereof.

(e) The contractor agrees to incorporate this clause in all subcontracts at all tiers.
